MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS BOX

The Spartan Stadium expansion project, completed in August 2005, included the construction of a new press box. Level 8 is the working press deck that features 193 seats and four radio broadcast booths. Level 6 is the television camera deck as well as the broadcast location for national and regional telecasts.

Admission to the press box is through Gate F on the west side of the stadium. All press personnel are subject to search prior to entering Spartan Stadium.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for Michigan State's 2010 home football games should be submitted online. Please contact athletic communications office assistant Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271 for the URL.

Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis. All other credentials for print media are issued on basis of circulation. Upon acceptance of application, appropriate credentials are mailed out or held for pickup at media will-call, located at Gate F on the west side of Spartan Stadium. All members of the media picking up credentials at media will-call will be required to provide photo identification and the name must match the one listed on the credential. Working press tickets contain specific seat locations. Reporters requiring exclusive phone service should have their own lines and instruments installed. Others may use a limited number of telephones on a first-come, first-served basis.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIALS

Writers covering the Spartans on a regular basis may request media credentials for road games through the MSU Athletic Communications Department. Credential requests are submitted to opponent SIDs on Mondays two weeks prior to the game.

PHONE LINES

An adequate number of phone lines and phone instruments are available, but media members needing to order their own lines should contact Ameritech at (800) 321-8152. Those ordering personal phones should provide Ameritech with the following street address for installation, One Michigan State University. To use existing lines, dial 8-0-area code-number. For toll free numbers, dial 8-1-800-number. Only collect, toll free and credit card calls are accepted.

INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless Internet is available for the working media in the press box on Level 8. Ethernet connections are available at each of the 193 seats in the press box, but only a limited number of cords are available. Please plan on bringing an Ethernet cord to use high-speed access. It is recommended for print outlets to use wireless access and photographers to use high-speed access.

RADIO

Each originating broadcasting station will be issued a maximum of eight booth credentials. Spotters' credentials must come from this allotment. Home team spotters are provided on advance notice only, and visiting team spotters must be arranged with visitors.

Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show receive consideration for credentials. A post-game report service will be available from an athletic communications staffer after each home game at no charge.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field passes are issued on the basis of circulation with priority granted to media agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Photographers may work from either sideline (except in the team area) and beyond both end zones. Press box photo passes for assigned locations are issued to television station crews. A maximum of three working tickets is allowed per TV station. With the return of natural grass in Spartan Stadium, field access is limited to still photographers, camera operators and sideline reporters for "live" radio/TV network coverage.

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee regarding sideline control, which ensure the sideline is a working press area. The following guidelines are adhered to: 1. Each photographer is required to wear an armband at all times; 2. Armbands must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup; 3. After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the limit line and sideline; 4. Cutline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline armband area; 5. Tripods are not permitted in the sideline armband area.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking passes are available for $15 per game and $105 for the 2010 season (seven home games). The designated lots for media parking are all within easy walking distance of Spartan Stadium. Media parking passes will be assigned by the MSU Athletic Communications Department. Priority for lot assignment will be given to daily newspapers and TV stations that cover Spartan football on a regular basis. All other media parking will be issued on the basis of circulation or market size (TV/radio). Additional parking fees are required to accommodate TV satellite trucks and "live" radio remotes.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Live stats for the 2010 season will be available at the following web site: www.livestats.ath.msu.edu. The interactive page will remain active following the conclusion of the game. Media members are encouraged to use this site as their main reference point for statistics; only a limited number of copies will be printed following each quarter.

Prior to kickoff, all media members will be provided a flip card and other pertinent information. Last-minute line-up changes, pregame weather conditions and other information will be relayed through the internal public address system. Updated game notes for both teams and Big Ten Conference notes and stats will be available for media members upon request in the media workroom. Game notes for both teams also will be posted in the Football Media Center on the front page of www.msuspartans.com on game day.

Following the conclusion of the game, a complete post-game stats package will be available in the press box and will contain a scoring summary, final team statistics, final individual statistics, complete play-by-play, drive charts, defensive statistics, player participation list, post-game quotes from both head coaches and selected players plus post-game notes.

Upon request, a final statistics book, quotes and notes can be e-mailed to media members approximately one hour after the conclusion of the game. To be added to the list, please e-mail Associate Athletics Director John Lewandowski at lewski@ath.msu.edu.

In addition, game notes and quotes will be posted on Michigan State's official web site promptly after the conclusion of the game (www.msuspartans.com).

MEDIA HOSPITALITY

Food will be sold from the concession area, located on Level 8 (press box). The concession area will open approximately two hours before kickoff and remain open through the conclusion of the third quarter. Complimentary coffee and soft drinks are available throughout the game.

Following the post-game press conferences and interviews, complimentary pizzas will be served on Level 8.

HOTEL ROOMS

Hotel rooms are booked far in advance of Michigan State home football weekends. The Michigan State Athletic Communications Department has set aside a limited number of rooms at local hotels for accredited media representatives. Arrangements should be made through sports information office assistant Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271. Some area hotels require a two-night stay for Michigan State home football weekends and a valid credit card is required for reservations being made through the MSU Athletic Communications Department. Media members are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements when Michigan State plays on the road.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

A weekly press conference with MSU head coach Mark Dantonio will be held each Tuesday during the season, beginning at 11:30 a.m. on Level 4 (Spartan Club) in Spartan Stadium. Parking is available in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

Outside the weekly press conference, interviews during the week with head coach Mark Dantonio or any Spartan players should be arranged through the MSU Athletic Communications Department. The MSU Athletic Communications Department requests that all player interviews be arranged through this office and that media members are prohibited from contacting players in their apartments or dormitory rooms. The best time for player interviews is following practice Tuesday at approximately 5:30 p.m. All player interviews should be completed by the conclusion of practice on Wednesday of game week. Please contact the MSU Athletic Communications Department for all player interview requests at least 24 hours in advance.

Media parking is available in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Media representatives may attend MSU's post-game press conference, featuring head coach Mark Dantonio and the coordinators, in the interview trailer, located outside the stadium tunnel entrance after a short post-game cooling-off period. All requested Spartan players also will be available for post-game comments in the interview trailer following Coach Dantonio's press conference. The Spartan locker room is closed to the media. Coach Dantonio's comments will be hooked into an amplification system and audio feeds can be obtained through use of connector cords (standard 1/4-inch connector). TV stations should bring a recording deck, standard BNC video cable and XLR audio cable. TV cameramen will be asked to set up their equipment at the back of the room. Coach Dantonio's post-game press conference can also be seen live on closed circuit in the press box. The visiting coach press conference, held in another trailer outside the tunnel, will be shown on a tape-delay basis following Coach Dantonio's press conference.

PRACTICE SCHEDULE

Tuesday practices are normally open to the working media for approximately 30 minutes, beginning at 3:30 p.m. TV cameras and still photographers are permitted to shoot flex and the first few periods. The remainder of practice is closed.

WEEKLY RELEASE VIA E-MAIL

To receive the weekly football release via electronic mail, members of the media can send an e-mail message to Associate Athletics Director John Lewandowski: lewski@ath.msu.edu. The release is also posted on the athletics department official web site (www.msuspartans.com) in text format and Adobe PDF format.

SPARTAN SPORTS NETWORK

For the 11th consecutive season, the Spartan Sports Network (Holt, Mich.) will produce and distribute Michigan State football broadcasts. The Network, which is the largest and most listened to in the state, is powered by seven 50,000-watt stations and two 100,000-watt stations for 100 percent coverage of the state of Michigan. For the fourth consecutive year, the Spartan Sports Network was the most honored in the state, garnering eight Michigan Association of Broadcasters' "Broadcast Excellence Awards." Network flagship stations are WJIM Radio (AM 1240) and WMMQ (FM 94.9) in Lansing and WJR Radio (AM 760) in Detroit.

George Blaha has anchored Spartan football broadcasts as play-by-play voice for over three decades. A 2008 inductee into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame, Blaha is a Michigan broadcast icon, recently completing his 34th season as radio and television play-by-play voice of the National Basketball Association's Detroit Pistons. The longest tenured play-by-play broadcaster in the state, he has been the recipient of many prestigious awards, including Michigan Sports Broadcaster of the Year (1998 and 2007) from the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. In 2002, he also was presented the Ty Tyson Award for "Excellence in Sports Broadcasting" by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.

Born in Detroit, Blaha was raised in Marshalltown, Iowa, and Grayling, Mich. He and his father attended Michigan State's first-ever Big Ten football game, played at Iowa in 1953. Blaha earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Notre Dame in 1966 and later received his MBA from Michigan.

Jim Miller, a three-year starter at quarterback for Coach George Perles at Michigan State from 1991-93, enters his fifth season as color analyst for the Spartan Sports Network. Miller still ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in pass attempts (seventh at 746), pass completions (fourth at 467), completion percentage (second at .629) and passing yards (seventh at 5,037). As a senior, Miller shared team MVP honors after completing 215-of-336 passes (.640) for 2,269 yards and nine touchdowns. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection from 1990-92, he earned his bachelor's degree in supply chain management from Michigan State in 2002. Prior to signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Michigan State in February 1989, Miller earned All-America and all-state honors at Kettering High School in Waterford, Mich.

A sixth-round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1994 National Football League Draft, Miller threw for 6,387 yards and 36 TDs during his nine-year pro career (Pittsburgh, 1995-96; Atlanta, 1997; Chicago, 1998-2002; New England, 2004). He earned 27 career starts at quarterback, compiling a 15-11 record as a starter in Chicago. In five seasons with the Bears, Miller recorded three 300-yard passing games. In his first career start against Minnesota on Nov. 14, 1999, he completed 34-of-48 throws for 422 yards and three scores. His 422 passing yards represent the fourth-highest single-game total in Chicago history. In 2001, Miller led the Bears' charge to the playoffs, posting an 11-2 record as a starter during the regular season while establishing career highs in pass attempts (395), pass completions (228), passing yards (2,299) and TDs (13). In 2002, he threw for 1,944 yards while matching his career best with 13 TD tosses.

Additional on-air responsibilities for Miller include providing NFL analysis for Sirius Satellite Radio and serving as a studio analyst for Comcast SportsNet Chicago's "Bears Post Game Live." Miller is the co-founder of GoBigRecruiting.com and owns JMK Custom Homes in Clarkston, Mich.

Former Michigan State All-Big Ten center Jason Strayhorn begins his fifth season as the sideline reporter for the Spartan Sports Network. A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Strayhorn started 24 consecutive games at center for Coach Nick Saban in 1997-98. As a senior, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media after grading out as a winner (better than 70 percent) in 11 of the 12 games in 1998. The former team captain also received the Up Front Award as the team's outstanding interior lineman in 1998, consistently posting the unit's top grade for pass protection by not allowing a sack the entire season. Strayhorn turned in one of the best performances of his career in MSU's 28-24 victory over top-ranked Ohio State in Columbus in 1998. He was selected Spartan Offensive Player of the Week after grading out 80 percent overall against the Buckeyes, including 89 percent in his pass-blocking assignments.

Strayhorn, who received his bachelor's degree in business management from Michigan State in 1998, owns a real estate investment company.

Will Tieman returns for his 13th year on the Spartan football broadcast team, serving as the broadcast host. During home games at Spartan Stadium, Tieman broadcasts from the network's on-field set, located in the north end zone. His other football-related activities include: hosting a daily statewide series, called "In the Huddle with Mark Dantonio" and handling play-by-play duties for the national broadcast of the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl. For the 20th year, Tieman serves as host for the syndicated series "This Week in College Football and Basketball." Twice Tieman has been honored with the "Best Network Play-by-Play" award by the Michigan Association of Broadcasters. He was recognized in 2008 for his work as voice of the Michigan State basketball team and in 2007 for his presentation of the Motor City Bowl. Tieman currently serves as the president of the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.

BIG TEN NETWORK

NETWORK PROFILE

Headquartered in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences.

With more than 350 live sports events, and virtually all of them in high definition, the Big Ten Network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country. The network is on the air 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

WHERE TO FIND US

The network is available up to an estimated 75 million households, and in all 50 states and Canada though agreements with more than 300 cable, satellite and telco affiliates. Customers of DIRECTV and DISH Network, have access to the network regardless of where they live, while Verizon and AT&T continue to roll out their FiOS and U-Verse services across the country. On cable, the network is available in 19 of the nation's 20 largest media markets, including New York City, Chicago, Philadelphia, Dallas, San Francisco, Boston, Atlanta, Washington DC, Houston and many more. To get the channel number specific to your area and provider, visit http://www.bigtennetwork.com/channelfinder.

Cable subscribers inside the eight Big Ten states receive the network on either an expanded basic or digital basic level of service. Outside the eight states, cable operators that carry the network make it available on a variety of packages.

BIG TEN NETWORK PROGRAMMING

The Big Ten Network is on the air 24 hours per day, 365 days a year. The network annually televises more than 350 live events and streams an additional 300+ events. Each year's schedule is comprised of approximately 35-40 football games, 105 regular season men's basketball games, Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament games, 55 women's basketball games, Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament games, hundreds of additional Olympic sports events and dozens of Big Ten championship events.

Every Big Ten Network football game telecast is surrounded by Big Ten Football Saturday, the network's pre-game, halftime and post-game show hosted by Dave Revsine and analysts Gerry DiNardo and Howard Griffith.

New for the 2010 season, the Big Ten Network will offer two hours of new programming every weeknight. In addition, the highly-anticipated series, Big Ten Icons, will debut on Saturday, Sept. 18, and will be hosted by broadcasting legend Keith Jackson. The 20-episode series will count down the top student-athletes in Big Ten history across all sports based on their collegiate careers. In all, the network will supplement its game coverage with a dozen football-themed shows each week.

The fall programming lineup will feature several new shows, highlighted by Big Ten Icons, Big Ten Film Vault and The Next Level. Returning programs will include Behind the Schemes, Big Ten's Best, Big Ten Breakdown, Big Ten Football & Beyond, Big Ten Tailgate and The Big Ten's Greatest Games.

In addition to live events, the network also airs coaches' shows and classic games and each campus has the opportunity to produce original, campus programming highlighting various aspects of campus life and the qualities that make each university unique.

Some of the Big Ten Network's streamed events are also televised on delay as part of the network's Student U initiative. Big Ten students on each campus produce and announce these events, offering a unique opportunity to gain real-world television experience.

WHY THE NETWORK WAS CREATED

The Big Ten Network was created to provide the conference with more national exposure for Big Ten sports while enhancing its existing television agreements with its other television partners.

The conference wanted to control more fully the advertising environment in which its events were aired (the network accepts no alcohol or gambling advertising), dramatically increase exposure for women's sports and other NCAA sports that had not previously been widely televised and improve distribution for football and men's basketball games that were previously available only on a local or regional basis.

Considered to be one of the most successful launches in cable television history, the Big Ten Network became the first network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million subscribers within its first 30 days on the air. The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks.

THE BIG TEN NETWORK'S IMPACT

The network has provided an additional revenue source at a time of continued decreases in state support. The network has also provided significant and additional exposure for all Big Ten men's and women's sports, some of which previously received little or no television exposure. It also helps with recruiting in all sports as the ability for parents to watch their children compete from anywhere across the country is a major selling point.

2010 OUTLOOK

Michigan State played in its third consecutive bowl game last season, a first for the program since 1995-97, while gaining valuable experience for its younger players in several key positions. Entering 2010, the Spartans are looking to get back into the upper echelon of the Big Ten standings as the team features an arsenal of fast, dangerous weapons on offense and a deep group of hard-hitting playmakers on defense. The Spartans welcome back 15 starters, including seven on offense, six on defense and two specialists, and have solidified their depth on both sides of the ball.

Fourth-year head coach Mark Dantonio, who has won the second-most games (22) of any Spartan coach in his first three seasons, takes a position-by-position look at the 2010 Spartans.

QUARTERBACKS

Junior Kirk Cousins (6-3, 202) emerged as the starting quarterback last season and went on to produce impressive numbers in his first year as a starter. Starting in 12 games, Cousins ranked among MSU's Top 10 single-season leaders in several categories, including total offense (2,780 yards; third), passing yards (2,680 yards; fourth), completions (198; sixth), touchdowns (19; seventh), pass attempts (328; seventh) and passing efficiency (142.6; eighth). Cousins' 19 passing TDs were third most in the Big Ten and his passing efficiency ranked third in the Big Ten and 25th nationally. In addition, he recorded eight 200-yard passing games, which stands third in an MSU season.

More importantly than the statistics, however, is the experience Cousins gained last season. Not only was he a first-year starting quarterback, but he was also elected a team captain by his teammates, becoming only the second sophomore captain in MSU's 113-year football history.

"I think Kirk did an outstanding job last year," Dantonio said. "He's always been an extremely mature, hard-working individual. He's determined he can play, and play at a high level under pressure, which is something I feel as well.

"Looking back at last year, he hadn't won the quarterback job yet and was elected team captain. When that happens, there's a lot of pressure. You have to be able to balance things, and that was tough on him. But I think the biggest advantage that he has now is that he's secured himself as a player on the field and as a leader on this football team. He feels more at ease now to lead, and he can impact so many other people by doing that.

"That year of experience on the field without question is going to help him because you can prepare him all you want, but there's nothing like getting him ready for a national TV audience or playing in front of 80,000 people. There's a difference, and now he has that experience, so I think that he'll be ready to conquer that next situation of winning games down the stretch."

Backing up Cousins will be red-shirt freshman Andrew Maxwell (6-3, 200). The development of Maxwell over the past year has allowed Dantonio to move Keith Nichol, an extremely talented and multi-dimensional threat, to wide receiver. Nichol saw action at quarterback in 10 games last season, including a start in the road win at Illinois, but was moved to split end during bowl practice and continued to learn the position during the spring.

In his first year as a starter, Kirk Cousins completed 60.4 percent of his passes for 2,680 yards and 19 touchdowns. Cousins ranked third in the Big Ten and No. 25 in the NCAA in passing efficiency with his 142.6 rating.

Thrust into the back-up role, Maxwell took reps with the first- and second-teams all spring and capped his successful spring season by completing 18-of-34 passes for 244 yards and a touchdown in the Green-White game.

"We were able to move Keith to wide receiver as a luxury in the spring because of the progress made by Andrew," Dantonio said. "We see a huge upside in him as a young football player, and we feel it's important to continue to develop him for the future. He has a tremendous arm, displays great poise, and he understands the offense. He also has leadership qualities and charisma. All of those factors allowed us to make the move."

The depth at quarterback also includes true freshman Joe Boisture (6-5, 212), an Elite 11 Quarterback who enrolled in January and participated in spring practice.

"We're in a great quarterback situation," said Dantonio. "We have four quarterbacks for the first time since I've been here when you include Keith into that mix. We're not going to do that at this point, but in an emergency situation or at times he will play there. I think we have four outstanding quarterbacks, and the future looks very bright."

RUNNING BACKS/FULLBACKS

Last season, the starting competition at running back was one of the most intense in preseason camp. The situation is much clearer in 2010 as sophomores Larry Caper (5-11, 220) and Edwin Baker (5-9, 208) have a grip on the top two spots after superb rookie seasons. The dynamic freshman duo were the top two rushers on the team, combining for 895 yards and seven touchdowns in 2009.

Caper, a Freshman All-Big Ten selection by ESPN.com and the Sporting News, appeared in 12 games, including starts in five of the last eight contests. He led the team in rushing (468 yards), rushing TDs (six) and carries (120), and his game-winning, 23-yard touchdown run in overtime propelled the Spartans to their second consecutive victory over Michigan.

After playing in the season opener against Montana State, Baker sat out the next five games as a potential red-shirt candidate, but burst back onto the scene against Northwestern. From there, Baker led the team in rushing in the second half of the season and averaged a team-high 53.4 yards per game. Baker concluded his freshman campaign by rushing for 97 yards in the Alamo Bowl against Texas Tech, including a 46-scoring run, which was the longest Spartan rushing touchdown in bowl history.

While the heralded tandem performed well in their first year, Dantonio is looking for both of them to take the next step in their second seasons, something he took note of during spring practice.

"Both Larry and Edwin had the opportunity to carry the ball a lot last year," Dantonio said. "At points in time, they were very exciting, explosive and made plays in the game. But what you look for is consistency. When you continue throughout your career, there are different levels of learning you have to go through. They were at the level last season that if they concentrated and did exactly the right thing, they were successful. Now what they're trying to do is get to that point where being successful is a habit because they know what to do so well that they can concentrate on the finer points, and that's what's happened with both those guys. They had outstanding springs."

In addition to Caper and Baker, two early enrollees that participated in spring ball could also see carries. At 6-2, 230 pounds, Le'Veon Bell is a powerful and physical runner, while the diminutive Nick Hill, standing 5-6 and 182 pounds, provides another quick and elusive threat in the backfield. Incoming freshman Jeremy Langford (6-0, 185) also will have a chance to compete for a spot in preseason camp.

"Le'Veon and Nick came in as true freshman in the spring and they were exciting to watch as well," remarked Dantonio. "When you look at our tailback position, it's much different than last year, in terms of experience, and in terms of depth from top to bottom."

One of the most overlooked aspects of the Spartan offense – the fullback – is also one of the most important. Heading into camp, fifth-year senior Josh Rouse (6-3, 240) will be the starter after redshirting last season with an injured toe. Rouse, a converted linebacker, saw action in every game as a junior in 2008 and also will play on special teams.

"We never seem to talk about the fullback, but it's so important in our offense," Dantonio said. "Because of the different personnel groupings, Josh might not be in there for every snap, but he's a guy with great leadership ability. He's a guy that can catch the ball out of the backfield and he's physical."

Adam Setterbo (6-3, 232, Jr.), Fred Smith (6-2, 240, So.) and Drew Stevens (6-4, 230, So.) will provide depth at fullback.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Despite the loss of leading receiver and first-team All-Big Ten selection Blair White, the Spartan wide receiving corps features a deep group of experienced playmakers as five letterwinners return.

Versatile playmaker Keshawn Martin (5-11, 185, Jr.), who led the team and ranked third in the Big Ten last season with 1,451 all-purpose yards (111.6

Keshawn Martin accounted for a team-best 1,451 all-purpose yards and averaged 18.1 yards every time he touched the football in 2009.

avg.), caught five touchdown passes in 2009, four of them for 48 yards or longer. He also ranked first on the Spartans in yards per catch (22.8 avg.), hauling in 18 catches for 411 yards. An explosive return man and also a viable rushing option, Martin was the only player in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision in 2009 to score touchdowns of 80 or more yards three different ways (93-yard kick return vs. Minnesota; 91-yard reception vs. Wisconsin; 84-yard run vs. Minnesota).

"Keshawn is a guy that from day one has been put into specific situations to make big plays," said Dantonio. "In terms of trick plays, he's been outstanding, and he can also bust a play open. Now, he's become a much more complete player in terms of catching the ball in traffic, and we saw that in the spring. It's just a matter of him relaxing. Keshawn had never played receiver before coming here, and now that he's in his third year, his development has just taken off."

Similar to Martin, Dantonio believes Keith Nichol's (6-2, 222, Jr.) exceptional athletic ability will translate into success as a wide receiver. Moved to receiver during bowl practice out of personnel necessity, Nichol quickly picked up the position and started in the Alamo Bowl, catching two passes for 11 yards while also rushing for a touchdown from the Wildcat formation. Nichol lined up with the first team all spring practice and made several athletic catches that impressed the coaching staff.

"Keith is just too good of an athlete to have on the sidelines," Dantonio said. "You can put the ball in his hands in a variety of ways, and he's going to make plays. Just having him out there physically to block gives you an advantage. He's one of the quickest, strongest, most explosive players on this team plus he has great ball skills. He's just learning the position, so on a learning curve, he's far and above where a normal player would be."

Two more veterans with starting experience are Mark Dell (6-2, 199, Sr.) and B.J. Cunningham (6-2, 220, Jr.). Dell has 82 receptions for 1,348 yards and six TDs in 34 career games, including 19 starts. Cunningham was second on the team last year with 48 catches for 641 yards and four TDs while starting 10 games.

"When you complement Keshawn and Keith with two guys like B.J. Cunningham and Mark Dell, who are tremendous wide receivers as well, we basically have four starters," Dantonio said. "Mark has been playing here since day one, and B.J. has started since he's been a red-shirt freshman. Those two guys have caught a lot of balls for us and they are both game-breakers."

Chris D. Rucker (5-10, 175, Jr.), a two-year letterwinner, will add depth at receiver along with Bennie Fowler (6-1, 206, R-Fr.), Donald Spencer (6-2, 200, R-Fr.) and Brad Sonntag (5-8, 175, Jr.).

Incoming freshmen Keith Mumphrey (6-1, 200) and Tony Lippett (6-3, 185) could also see time.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Although the offensive line returns five players with starting experience, the unit will have a different look in 2010.

One mainstay on the line, however, is left guard Joel Foreman (6-4, 310, Jr.), who is entering his third year as a starter. Foreman, a Freshman All-American in 2008 and an honorable mention All-Big Ten selection last year, has played in 25 games the last two seasons with 23 starts. He did not allow a sack during the entire regular season in 2009. Ethan Ruhland (6-5, 288, So.), who made three appearances as a red-shirt freshman including time at left guard in the second half at Notre Dame, is slated as Foreman's backup.

Another starter returning from last year is D.J. Young (6-5, 298, Sr.-5). The transfer from Bowling Green was impressive in his first season playing for the Spartans, starting the last 11 games at right tackle, but made the switch over to left tackle during spring practice. John Deyo (6-6, 294, So.) is listed second on the depth chart behind Young.

At center, John Stipek (6-5, 285, Sr.-5) started three games in 2009 while filling in for Joel Nitchman and appeared in seven games overall. A converted defensive lineman, Stipek made strides as the starting center in spring practice and was named to the All-Spring Team by the Sporting News.

"D.J. is an extremely hard worker and played very well last year," said Dantonio. "Joel has been solid and is going into his third year as a starter, and I thought Stipek was one of the most improved players coming out of spring practice."

Jared McGaha (6-6, 300, Jr.) and J'Michael Deane (6-5, 312, Sr.-5) each started one game at right guard last year, but didn't see much action on the line following a change in the rotation entering the third week of the season. Entering camp this year, the two are in a battle for the starting right tackle position.

Chris McDonald (6-5, 295, So.) is the leading candidate to start at right guard heading into camp. McDonald made four appearances in 2009, primarily on special teams, but took reps with the first team all spring practice. Zach Hueter (6-6, 315, So.) and Antonio Jeremiah (6-5, 360, Jr.) also will compete at right guard.

The line also features several promising reserves that were redshirted last season, including left tackle David Barrent (6-8, 308, R-Fr.), center Nate Klatt (6-4, 292, R-Fr.) and right tackle Henry Conway (6-6, 304, R-Fr.).

"We are retooling the offensive line, but we have some very good athletes there and I think we'll get that squared away," Dantonio said. "They're one of the hardest working groups out there. We're big and athletic, and what that has to do is transition into great play, but we'll get that from our guys. There's a great sense of commitment and I think they're getting good leadership from the upperclassmen."

TIGHT ENDS

Already a position of strength a year ago, the Spartans return all four letterwinners at tight end in 2010 to form one of the most talented units in the nation. MSU's tight ends combined for 56 receptions, 780 receiving yards and eight touchdowns last season.

Leading the way is Charlie Gantt (6-5, 260, Sr.-5), a Mackey Award candidate who has caught 41 passes for 650 yards and six touchdowns the past two seasons while starting 26 consecutive games at tight end. Gantt has proven to be a solid run-blocker who has also displayed the ability to go down field and make plays in the passing game.

In his first year playing for Michigan State after transferring from Clemson, Brian Linthicum (6-5, 238, Jr.) made an immediate impact and proved to be a very athletic tight end, grabbing 20 receptions for 266 yards and two TDs. Linthicum started in seven of 12 games and led the Spartan tight ends with 14 pancake blocks.

Dion Sims (6-5, 285, So.), a Freshman All-Big Ten selection, appeared in all 13 games as a true freshman in 2009 and led the unit with three touchdowns to go along with 11 catches and 133 yards. Garrett Celek (6-5, 245, Jr.) has gained valuable experience playing in 22 games the past two years and will also have a chance to make an impact this season.

"We have depth at tight end much like the wide receivers," said Dantonio. "Charlie Gantt has definitely established himself throughout his career and will look to have another big year. Brian Linthicum made big plays last season and gives you a different type of guy who has tremendous ball skills and hand-eye coordination. Celek is in his third year playing, and Dion Sims had a phenomenal freshman year and can catch everything in sight as well. Again,

Charlie Gantt, who has started 26 consecutive games at tight end, enters the 2010 season with 41 career receptions for 650 yards and six touchdowns.

it's another competitive situation where we have a lot of guys to throw to. That's why when you look at our offense, it's so exciting for the 2010 season."

DEFENSIVE LINE

The defensive line returns six letterwinners, but is still a relatively young unit full of potential after gaining experience in 2009.

Three of the four starters heading into preseason camp are only sophomores, including defensive tackle Jerel Worthy (6-3, 305, So.), who was named a Freshman All-American last season after ranking second on team with 9.0 tackles for loss (34 yards) and 4.5 sacks (23 yards). Worthy was second among Spartan defensive linemen with 37 tackles and produced one tackle for loss in seven straight games during one stretch. Backing up Worthy is Dan France (6-6, 296, R-Fr.), a redshirt last season who Dantonio cited as having a "tremendous spring." Micajah Reynolds (6-5, 295, R-Fr.), a converted offensive lineman, provides depth on the defensive line.

Alongside Worthy is nose tackle Blake Treadwell (6-3, 277, So.). After sitting out the first four games as a potential redshirt in 2009, Treadwell played in the last nine games of the season and recorded 11 tackles. Kevin Pickelman (6-4, 285, Jr.), who tallied a career-high 20 tackles last year, including five in the Alamo Bowl, also will see significant time at nose tackle.

"We're young, but our defensive tackle situation is going to be solid with Worthy and Treadwell," said Dantonio. "Pickelman also gives us needed depth as well."

Colin Neely (6-1, 258, Sr.-5) is the lone senior on the line and will start at one end position. Neely has quietly put together solid numbers in playing every game the past two seasons, including a career-high 24 tackles and 7.0 tackles for loss (36 yards) as a junior. In addition to Neely, Johnathan Strayhorn (6-0, 275, Jr.) has played in 19 games the past two seasons and recorded 13 tackles last year.

At the rush end, Dantonio is looking for sophomore Tyler Hoover (6-7, 260) to have a breakout season after showing promise in his first year of seeing action. Hoover appeared in every game last season, including a season-best performance in the Alamo Bowl with three tackles and a pass break-up against Texas Tech.

All-American and 2009 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Greg Jones led the conference and finished third in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision with a career-best 154 tackles. A model of consistency, Jones has led the team in tackles in 23 of the last 26 games.

"Tyler Hoover needs to come into his own this fall, he's playing an important position," Dantonio said. "We need him to play at a high level. After playing last year, I think his confidence is high. Colin Neely played well last year and should continue to be consistent for us."

Other candidates for playing time at defensive end include Todd Anderson (6-2, 242, Jr.), Denzel Drone (6-2, 250, R-Fr.) and Corey Freeman (6-2, 240, So.).

LINEBACKERS

Led by consensus first-team All-American Greg Jones (6-1, 235, Sr.) and three-year starter Eric Gordon (6-0, 232, Sr.-5), the strength of the Spartan defense is undoubtedly its linebackers.

During his first two seasons at Michigan State, Jones had already established himself as one of the top linebackers in the Big Ten. He garnered Freshman All-America accolades in 2007 and was a first-team all-conference selection in 2008. But in 2009, Jones elevated his game to a level that placed him among the nation's elite. The Cincinnati, Ohio, native led the Big Ten and ranked third in the NCAA FBS with 154 tackles, which ranked seventh most in an MSU season. He also ranked fifth in the league with nine sacks (53 yards) and 10th with 14 tackles for loss (69 yards). Perhaps Jones' most impressive trait was his consistency, as he compiled double-figures in tackles in nine games.

Those remarkable numbers landed Jones on the consensus All-America first team and made him the first Spartan to be named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. He also was named first-team All-Big Ten for the second consecutive year, and CollegeFootballNews.com listed Jones as the No. 1 linebacker in the nation and the top overall player in the Big Ten. In addition, Jones was selected as the recipient of the Linebacker Trophy (National Linebacker of the Year) by the College Football Performance Awards.

Named to the preseason watch lists for the Butkus Award, the Lombardi Award and the Nagurski Award, Jones has started 33 of 39 career games, including 27 consecutive starting assignments. He has 359 career tackles, including 36.5 for losses (140 yards) and 15.5 sacks (87 yards). Jones will enter the 2010 season ranked second among NCAA FBS active leaders in tackles per game (9.2 avg.) and total tackles (359). He already ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in tackles for loss (fifth), sacks (tied for sixth) and total tackles (eighth). In addition, he has produced double-figure tackles 18 times in his career.

"Our linebacking corps is obviously a position of depth for us," remarked Dantonio. "When you have a guy like Greg Jones who decides to return, a returning captain and first-team All-American, not only is he a great player but he has the players' respect as well. I think that speaks volumes about our program that he would come back. He would have been a high draft pick and to pass on those things shows that he values education, which is an example to all of our players. By staying, he has earned a lot of credibility with our players and our staff. He's the nucleus of our football team defensively.

"That being said, we certainly have a lot of talent around him, featuring three more guys who have starting experience. Eric Gordon returns for his fourth year as a starter. Those two have been alongside each other every step of their careers."

Gordon also has started 27 straight games at linebacker and has been consistent every year, collecting 239 tackles, including 22.5 for losses (88 yards) and 7.5 sacks (55 yards), in 38 career games. He had a career-high 92 tackles as a junior, ranking 16th in the Big Ten, to go along with 7.5 tackles for loss (39 yards) and 3.5 sacks (32 yards).

In addition to Gordon at sam (strong side) linebacker, Jon Misch (6-3, 207, Sr.-5) is a veteran who has compiled 50 tackles in 32 career games, including a career-high 28 stops last season.

Sophomore Chris Norman (6-1, 220, So.) is the projected starter at the star (weak side) linebacker position. Norman played in every game last season as a true freshman, including a start at Notre Dame, and recorded 11 tackles. With one season under his belt, the coaching staff expects Norman to make significant progress this fall. Providing backup behind Norman will be Denicos Allen (5-10, 212), a promising red-shirt freshman who made the transition from safety to linebacker during spring practice. Allen capped his strong spring season by tallying seven tackles, including 2.5 for loss (16 yards) and two sacks (15 yards), in the Green-White game.

"Both Chris and Denicos had outstanding springs," said Dantonio. "Chris played a lot last year and started at Notre Dame, which was by design, because I felt like he needed that experience. He's added weight this year and is still very athletic. Denicos has really improved and is very powerful."

The deep talent pool at linebacker extends past the starters, as several underclassmen will compete for playing time in the rotation. Steve Gardiner (6-1, 222, So.), TyQuan Hammock (6-0, 255, R-Fr.) and Jeremy Gainer (6-1, 225, R-Fr.) could all see the field in 2010, while two heralded freshmen in Max Bullough (6-3, 235) and William Gholston (6-7, 250) also will contribute. Both Bullough and Gholston were high school All-Americans who were ranked among the top five nationally at their respective position by various recruiting services.

"The linebackers will be a fun position to watch," said Dantonio. "We have quite a few guys with experience, and we also have some real talented young players. Max had an exciting spring and he's going to be a great player for us, and we have to find a place to get William on the field somewhere. He's a talented player that's sure to make an impact."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Michigan State lost five letterwinners in the secondary from last year's team but figures to have a strong unit anchored by underclassmen this season.

Veteran Chris L. Rucker (6-2, 200, Sr.), who has started in 23 games his first three seasons, will line up as the boundary corner. Rucker earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors for the second straight year in 2009 after recording a career-high 58 tackles and leading the team with seven pass break-ups.

"We feel very good about Chris L. Rucker," Dantonio

Chris L. Rucker, who heads into his third season as the starting boundary corner, recorded career highs in tackles (58) and pass break-ups (7) in 2009.

said. "He's fluid, fast and a very athletic player. He's going to have a great fall for us. He's come up with some picks for us in the past and definitely has that ability."

At field corner, Johnny Adams (5-11, 170, R-So.) returns for his second year of action. Adams made an immediate impact his freshman season in 2008, appearing in 12 games with starts against Iowa and Purdue. He tied for second on the team with two interceptions, including a 40-yard return for a touchdown against Purdue, while tallying 21 tackles and four pass break-ups. Adams played in the first two games of 2009 but then missed the majority of the season with a shoulder injury.

"Johnny Adams had a phenomenal freshman year, so we're excited to have him back," Dantonio said. "He's going to be a very good player."

Mitchell White (6-1, 170, So.), who played in the final four games of last season, and Dana Dixon (6-2, 173, R-Fr.) also will see action at corner.

Two players with starting experience also return at safety. Fifth-year senior Marcus Hyde (6-0, 200) has eight starts and 36 career games under his belt, and with his playing time increased as a junior, he responded by delivering a career-high 46 tackles. Hyde enters camp as the starting strong safety, with Jairus Jones (6-1, 208, R-Fr.) serving as the backup.

Trenton Robinson (5-10, 195, Jr.), who ranked fourth on the team a year ago with 67 tackles, has solidified himself as the starting free safety. After battling a midseason injury, Robinson turned up his game down the stretch last season, averaging 11.3 stops in the last three games, including a career-high 14 in the win at Purdue and 13 in the Alamo Bowl against Texas Tech.

"Marcus and Trenton are really going to be second-year starters for us," Dantonio said. "Marcus has played a lot the last two years and had a really good spring, and Trenton has been a very key player for us. I keep telling Trenton he's playing safety at a higher power right now. He's become much more disciplined. He's a very reactive, quick and explosive."

Pat White (5-11, 193, R-Fr.) and Jesse Johnson (5-10, 186, Sr.-5) will provide depth behind Robinson at free safety.

"I think our secondary has a chance to be really good," remarked Dantonio. "I like the experience we have coming back in our first group, and we have some very young players who can make plays."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Since Dantonio's arrival at Michigan State, the Spartans have featured some of the best special teams units in the Big Ten. Current Washington Redskins wide receiver Devin Thomas set a Big Ten record for kickoff return yards in 2007, and placekicker Brett Swenson was a 2009 first-team All-Big Ten selection and team MVP who finished his career tied for third in Big Ten history with 71 field goals. The kicking unit will take on a different look this year, however, as Swenson, the program's all-time leader in field goals, points scored (377) and extra points (164), is gone to the NFL.

Dan Conroy (5-10, 185, So.) and Kevin Muma (6-0, 186, R-Fr.) will battle all preseason camp, just as they did in spring practice, to see who will emerge as Swenson's successor at field goals and kickoffs. Conroy saw action in four games last season, averaging 62.1 yards on nine kickoffs. He also connected on a 43-yard field goal in the season opener against Montana State. Muma hit from as far as 42 yards out in spring scrimmages and made a 19-yarder in the spring game.

"Those guys will be under some pressure," Dantonio said of the kickers. "We have to secure the kickoff position, and I think Kevin did a nice job of that in the spring. Dan Conroy had a good spring along with Kevin in the field-goal kicking area. They're definitely locked up in a tie heading into camp. We have to see who kicks best when it's all on the line – that's something you don't really want to find out, but that's the necessity of that position. You have to be able to do it in games. There's an experience factor there, but we'll allow them to develop and be patient."

Although MSU will feature a new kicker in 2010, the return teams and punting unit should rank among the best in the conference and the nation.

Ray Guy Award candidate Aaron Bates ranked fifth in the Big Ten in punting with his 41.6-yard average in 2009 and placed 37 percent of his punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line.

Fourth-year starter and Ray Guy candidate Aaron Bates (6-0, 198, Sr.) has proven to be one of the top punters in program history. He enters his final season at MSU ranked sixth in school history in punting yards (8,342 yards) and seventh in punts (203) and punting average (41.1). His unique style of punting has allowed him to place 33 percent of his career punts inside the opponent's 20.

"I believe Aaron Bates will punt in the NFL – he's been excellent for us," Dantonio said. "He's also a great holder and performs under pressure. He's a guy who displays an extreme amount of concentration and attention to detail. He's an absolute gamer. Without question, the punt is the most important play in football in terms of yards and possession, and with Bates, we have a guy who can deliver."

At long snapper, Alex Shackleton (6-2, 240, Sr.-5) returns for his fourth season, adding experience and stability to the unit.

Wideout Keshawn Martin (5-11, 185, Jr.) will lead the kick return team, which ranked eighth nationally in 2009, averaging 25.9 yards per return. Martin was the 11th-ranked return man in the nation (28.9-yard avg.) and led the Big Ten in conference games with a 33.6-yard average. He ran back the opening kick of the second half at Minnesota 93 yards for a touchdown, MSU's first kick return for a TD since 2005, and accumulated 176 kick return yards in the game, the third-highest single-game figure in MSU history. Overall, Martin's 665 kick return yards ranked as the seventh-highest total in an MSU season. As a punt returner, Martin ranked fifth in the Big Ten with his 7.4-yard average (156 yards).

"Keshawn's an excellent return man and anytime he gets his hands on the ball, something is going to happen," said Dantonio. "He's very calm under pressure and plays within himself. He's one of our most explosive players who does so many things for us."

OVERALL

Heading into his fourth season at Michigan State, Dantonio is starting to see the development of his program come together as he continues to build the Spartans into one of the top programs in the Big Ten Conference.

"We have only lost one coach as our staff heads into our fourth year together here, which is very impressive and speaks to the type of program we are building," said Dantonio. "What we've been able to do is critique things and move forward. There's been consistency here. We have an outstanding staff that cares about their players as people, and I think that translates to success. We're all very, very excited about the season.

"My expectation is to have a very good football team. We have experience in all of the skill positions on offense, and defensively, when you can build around a player like Greg Jones, it's obviously very exciting. We also have a lot of good young players that were redshirted last year, so we're still a young team but we have experience now, and that experience will be a huge thing for us. All of our recruiting classes are really coming together. We have the skill players, leadership and chemistry to compete for the Big Ten Championship in 2010."

MARK DANTONIO
HEAD COACH
FOURTH SEASON

In just three seasons, Mark Dantonio has restored the pride and tradition of Michigan State football.

A Zanesville, Ohio, native with Midwest ties, Dantonio has 27 years of collegiate coaching experience and coached in his 14th bowl game as the Spartans faced Texas Tech in the 2010 Valero Alamo Bowl. He has led Michigan State to three-straight bowl appearances – a first for the program since 1995-97 – and has already won 22 games, the second most by any Spartan head coach in his first three seasons.

Dantonio, who served as head coach at Cincinnati for three seasons prior to his return to East Lansing, became Michigan State University's 24th head football coach on Nov. 27, 2006. He previously spent six years as an assistant coach at Michigan State from 1995-2000. During his career, Dantonio has worked for some of the top coaches in the game, including Nick Saban, Jim Tressel and Earle Bruce.

Riding the momentum generated by his first three seasons, Dantonio and his coaching staff have put together back-to-back recruiting classes in 2009-10 that analysts rank among the nation's Top 25.

Led by All-America linebacker Greg Jones and one of the most explosive offenses in the Big Ten, the Spartans earned their third consecutive bowl bid in 2009.

A consensus first-team All-American, Jones became the first Spartan to win Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year accolades after recording 154 tackles, finishing first in the conference and third nationally. He also led the team and ranked among the national leaders in tackles for loss (14 for 69 yards) and sacks (9 for 53 yards). Jones was rated the No. 1 linebacker in the nation by CollegeFootballNews.com and earned the Linebacker Trophy (Linebacker of the Year) by the College Football Performance Awards.

In addition, defensive tackle Jerel Worthy was named a Freshman All-American, marking the third-straight year a Spartan has landed on a Freshman All-America Team, and cornerback Jeremy Ware was chosen by the Oakland Raiders in the seventh round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

Offensively, Michigan State featured the No. 2 passing attack in the Big Ten, averaging nearly 270 yards per game. The Spartans also finished second in the league in scoring (29.7 points per game) and third in total offense (406.2 ypg.).

MSU established a school record with 28 touchdown passes in 2009, and the 3,502 passing yards ranked second in the school record book. Sophomore quarterback Kirk Cousins, an honorable mention All-Big Ten pick by the media, finished the regular season ranked among the Top 10 Spartan single-season leaders in passing yards (2,680 – fourth), pass completions (198 – sixth) and touchdown passes (19 – tied for seventh).

The Spartan passing game was built around wide receiver Blair White, who was a first-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches while recording career highs in receptions (70), TD catches (9) and receiving yards (990), all of which rank among MSU's Top 10 single-season leaders.

Fifth-year center Joel Nitchman earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and five other Spartans received All-Big Ten honorable mention.

He closed out his career ranked among the Big Ten's all-time leaders in kick scoring (second), field goals (tied for third), total points (fourth) and extra points (sixth).

One of 15 semifinalists for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award, Dantonio had his most successful season as a head coach in 2008. Under his leadership, the Spartans went 9-3 in the regular season and compiled a 6-2 record in the Big Ten, the best league mark for the program since 1999. It's also just the third time since 1966 and 10th overall that Michigan State has won at least nine games in a season. Michigan State defeated five bowl-bound teams, with victories over Florida Atlantic, Notre Dame, Iowa, Northwestern and Wisconsin. The Spartans, who made their eighth New Year's Day Bowl appearance and their first in nine seasons, finished the season ranked No. 24 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Polls.

Three Michigan State players were named first-team All-Big Ten by the league's head coaches: senior running back Javon Ringer, senior safety Otis Wiley and sophomore linebacker Greg Jones. The three first-team all-conference selections were the most for the Spartans since five players received first-team honors in 1999. A total of 15 Spartans received All-Big Ten recognition on the first team, second team or honorable mention.

Ringer became MSU's first consensus All-American since 2004, earning first-team accolades from Walter Camp and the Associated Press. The Doak Walker Award finalist had one of the finest seasons in Spartan history, scoring a school-record 22 touchdowns and rushing for 1,637 yards, which ranked second in the school record books. Ringer was selected by the Tennessee Titans in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

In his first season as head coach at Michigan State, Dantonio sparked a three-game turnaround as the Spartans finished the 2007 regular season with a 7-5 record, securing the program's first bowl bid in four years with a berth against Boston College in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, Fla. Dantonio became just the third first-year coach in Michigan State history to earn a postseason bowl bid, joining Saban (1995 Independence Bowl vs. LSU) and John L. Smith (2003 Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska).

Michigan State (7-6 overall) produced seven victories despite playing one of the nation's most demanding schedules, as the Spartans' 2007 opponents had a combined record of 75-57 (.568) during the regular season. The Spartans went 4-3 in games played against bowl-bound teams in 2007. Michigan State lost six games by a combined total of 31 points, including two in overtime (Northwestern and Iowa). All six games were decided by seven points or less.

Michigan State finished the year strong, winning its final two games of the regular season for the first time since 1999 with victories at Purdue and over Penn State, both bowl-bound teams. Dantonio became the first coach in Spartan history to begin his initial season 4-0, as Michigan State opened the 2007 campaign with wins over UAB, Bowling Green, Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. With the 31-14 victory over the Irish, the Spartans became the first opponent to win six-straight games in the 77-year history of Notre Dame Stadium.

In 2007, Michigan State featured one of the Big Ten's most prolific offensive attacks. The Spartans ranked second in the conference in scoring offense (33.1 points per game), third in rushing offense (198.2 yards per game) and fourth in total offense (416.8 ypg.). Michigan State also was listed among the NCAA's top 30 in rushing offense (No. 25) and scoring offense (No. 29). The Spartans scored a school single-season record 430 points and produced top 10 single-season totals in six other offensive categories, including total yards (No. 3: 5,418), first downs (No. 4: 266), passing yards (No. 5: 2,842), total yards per game (No. 6: 416.8) and scoring average (No. 6: 33.1 ppg.).

Michigan State also displayed dramatic improvement on the defensive side of the football in 2007. The Spartans ranked fourth in the Big Ten and No. 30 nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 125.9 ypg. Michigan State held four opponents under 50 yards rushing (UAB, Bowling Green, Indiana and Boston College). After finishing eighth in the Big Ten and No. 88 nationally in total defense in 2006, the Spartans improved to fourth in the league and No. 32 in the NCAA, allowing 345.5 ypg. After finishing near the bottom of the conference in tackles for loss (ninth) and sacks (10th) in 2006, Michigan State vaulted to third in the Big Ten in tackles for loss (7.69 per game) and fourth in sacks (3.08).

Three Spartans from the 2007 team were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft: wide receiver Devin Thomas (Washington Redskins, second round), tight end Kellen Davis (Chicago Bears, fifth round) and defensive end Ervin Baldwin (Chicago Bears, seventh round).

From his first day on the job, Dantonio has pledged to support student-athletes as they pursue excellence, both in the classroom and on the playing field. In his first three seasons, 30 Spartans have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, including 2009 Academic All-American Blair White. In addition, 45 Michigan State football student-athletes have earned their undergraduate degrees, including 75 percent of his players who have completed their eligibility.

The 54-year old Dantonio established himself as one of the nation's up-and-coming coaches during his three-year tenure at Cincinnati, where he compiled an 18-17 overall record and led the program in its transition from Conference USA to the BIG EAST Conference.

In 2006, Dantonio led the Bearcats to a 7-5 overall record and a 4-3 BIG EAST mark, making Cincinnati bowl eligible for the second time in three years. Dantonio accomplished the feat against the second-toughest schedule in the country, as UC's opponents compiled a 69-42 record. His Bearcats upset then-No. 7 Rutgers, 30-11, on Nov. 18, handing the Scarlet Knights their first loss of the season and marking the highest-ranked opponent ever defeated by UC.

Highly respected as one of the top defensive coaches in the country, Dantonio's Bearcats finished the 2006 regular season ranked among the NCAA leaders in six statistical categories: No. 21 in tackles for loss (6.8 per game), No. 23 in pass efficiency defense (109.3 rating), No. 27 in rushing defense (107.5 ypg.), No. 31 in total defense (304.3 ypg.), No. 34 in scoring defense (19.3 ppg.) and No. 34 in sacks (2.4 per game). UC held seven of its 12 regular-season opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, highlighted by performances of 36 yards each in back-to-back games against Miami-Ohio and Akron. In the win over Rutgers, Cincinnati held the nation's No. 15 rushing offense to a season-low 50 yards on the ground, and limited the NCAA's No. 3 rusher, Ray Rice, to a season-low 54 yards. Defensive end Trevor Anderson ranked among the BIG EAST leaders in tackles for loss (No. 5 at 1.13 per game) and sacks (No. 6 at 0.5 per game).

Six Bearcats earned All-BIG EAST honors in 2006, including three first-team selections: defensive tackle Terrill Byrd, linebacker Kevin McCullough and free safety Dominic Ross. Three UC players received second-team all-conference honors, including offensive guard Trevor Canfield, tight end Brent Celek and cornerback Mike Mickens. Celek, who set UC career records for receptions, receiving yards and TDs by a tight end, was taken by the Philadelphia Eagles in the fifth round of the 2007 NFL Draft.

In 2005, Dantonio brought together one of the nation's youngest teams, with the Bearcats starting as many as five first-year freshmen on defense and posted a competitive 4-7 record in the program's first season in the BIG EAST.

In 2004, he became the first head coach in 23 years to direct a team to a winning season in his first year at UC. Dantonio also became only the second head coach in Cincinnati history (along with Sid Gillman) to take the Bearcats to a bowl game in his first season. The Bearcats' went 7-5 in 2004, including a 5-3 mark in Conference USA to finish second in the league standings, and defeated Marshall (32-14) in the Fort Worth Bowl. Cincinnati led C-USA and ranked No. 26 in the NCAA in pass defense, allowing 194.2 yards per game. The Bearcats also ranked second in C-USA in total defense (341.3 ypg.) and third in both scoring defense (26.7 ppg.) and pass efficiency defense (121.5). Offensively, quarterback Gino Guidugli ranked 15th in the country in passing efficiency (146.5) and directed the Bearcats to the 30th-ranked offense in the nation (405.6 ypg). Three players were chosen in the 2005 NFL Draft (defensive end Trent Cole, linebacker Tyjuan Hagler and cornerback Daven Holly).

In his three seasons at Cincinnati, 21 of Dantonio's players earned All-BIG EAST honors and 40 received academic all-conference recognition. In back-to-back years (2006-07), Cincinnati's program was presented the American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award for attaining a graduation rate of at least 70 percent for its student-athletes.

Prior to his appointment at Cincinnati, Dantonio served as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State for three seasons, where his defensive unit helped the Buckeyes to a combined record of 32-6.

In 2003, Ohio State's defense was the second toughest against the run, allowing 62.3 yards per game, and was ranked No. 10 in total defense (296.9 ypg.) and No. 16 in scoring defense (17.6 ppg.). Those efforts helped the Buckeyes post an 11-2 record and finish No. 4 in the final polls.

Dantonio assembled the defense which led Ohio State to the 2002 National Championship, as the Buckeyes ranked second in the NCAA in scoring defense (13.1 ppg) and third in rushing defense (77.7 ypg.). Six Buckeye defenders were named first-team All-Big Ten during his tenure and 13 were drafted by the pros, including a pair of first-round selections in 2004 (defensive end Will Smith and cornerback Chris Gamble).

Dantonio is quite familiar with East Lansing, as he spent six years (1995-2000) as Michigan State's secondary coach, including five seasons under Saban and one under Bobby Williams. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2000. During his six-year tenure as an assistant, the Spartans compiled a 39-30-1 record.

Under his supervision, the Spartan secondary ranked among the NCAA leaders in pass efficiency defense three of his last four years, finishing No. 10 (101.6) in 1998, No. 16 (103.9) in 1997 and No. 22 (104.5) in 2000. In his last season as secondary coach, the Spartans only allowed 164.1 yards a game through the air, ranking seventh in the country in 2000.

Dantonio contributed to Michigan State's successful 1999 season, during which the Spartans went 10-2, won the Florida Citrus Bowl, led the Big Ten in total defense and ranked No. 7 in the final polls. He tutored cornerback Amp Campbell, who earned third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press.

Dantonio came to Michigan State following four seasons under Glen Mason at Kansas (1991-94) where he coached the defensive secondary. In 1992, the Jayhawks produced an 8-4 record and defeated BYU, 23-20, in the Aloha Bowl.

Dantonio previously spent five years at Youngstown State under Tressel, helping the Penguins to three trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs. While serving as defensive coordinator in 1990, Youngstown State posted a perfect 11-0 regular-season record and ranked second nationally.

His coaching credits also including stops at Akron (defensive secondary, 1985), Ohio State (graduate assistant, 1983-84), Butler (Kan.) Junior College (defensive coordinator, 1982), Purdue (graduate assistant, 1981) and Ohio University (graduate assistant, 1980).

Dantonio earned three letters as a defensive back for Coach Jim Carlen at South Carolina (1976-78). He earned a bachelor's degree in education from South Carolina in 1979. Dantonio later earned a master's degree in education from Ohio U. in 1980.

He picked up all-state and all-league honors as a prep football player at Zanesville (Ohio) High School and was selected to play in the Ohio North-South All-Star Game.

In their first two years as honorary co-chairs, Dantonio and his wife Becky have helped raise $1.52 million for the Children's Miracle Network at Sparrow Children's Center.

DON TREADWELL
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
WIDE RECEIVERS
(SEVENTH OVERALL AT MSU)

During his three years as Michigan State's offensive coordinator, Don Treadwell has put together one of the most explosive offenses in the Big Ten, featuring a balanced attack full of talented playmakers. Treadwell also serves as the wide receivers coach.

A 26-year coaching veteran, Treadwell has been an offensive coordinator at four schools, including three years on Coach Mark Dantonio's staff at Cincinnati (2004-06). Along with Dantonio, he also has experience in East Lansing, serving as the Spartan receivers coach from 2000-02.

Last season, Michigan State featured the No. 2 scoring offense in the Big Ten Conference, averaging nearly 30 points per game (29.7 ppg). The Spartans were also second in the league in passing (269.4 yards per game) and third in total offense (406.2 ypg.). MSU established a school record with 28 touchdown passes in 2009, and the 3,502 passing yards ranked second in the school record books. The offense also ranked among the best in school history in total offense (5,281 yards, sixth) and points scored (386, third). Sophomore quarterback Kirk Cousins, an honorable mention All-Big Ten pick by the media, finished the regular season ranked among the Top 10 Spartan single-season leaders in passing yards (2,680 - 4th), pass completions (198 - sixth) and touchdown passes (19 - tied for 7th). MSU's passing game was built around wide receiver Blair White, who was a first-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches. White recorded career highs in receptions (70), touchdown catches (9) and receiving yards (990), all of which rank among MSU's Top 10 single-season leaders. He also became the program's first Academic All-America First-Team selection since 1993 for his 3.89 GPA in human biology. Overall, five Spartans on offense earned All-Big Ten honors.

In 2008, Treadwell's offense showcased one of the top running backs in the nation in Javon Ringer, who led the nation in carries (390), scoring (132 points) and touchdowns (22), while ranking fourth in rushing (125.9 ypg.) en route to being named a consensus first-team All-American. Ringer, who was drafted in the fifth round by Tennessee, was the first Spartan running back to earn All-America honors since Lorenzo White in 1987. The consensus All-Big Ten first-team selection rushed for 1,637 yards, the second-highest single-season total in school history.

In his first season as offensive coordinator at Michigan State in 2007, Treadwell guided one of the most balanced offensive attacks in the Big Ten, as the Spartans were one of two conference teams and one of nine teams in the NCAA to average at least 200 yards or more in both rushing offense and passing offense during the regular season. The Spartans were among the Big Ten leaders in scoring offense (No. 2 at 33.1 points a game), rushing offense (No. 3 at 198.2 ypg.), total offense (No. 4 at 416.8 ypg.) and passing offense (No. 6 at 218.6 ypg.). It was one of the most productive offensive seasons in school history as the Spartans ranked first in points scored (430), third in total offense (5,418 yards), fifth in passing yards (2,842 yards), and sixth in scoring average (33.1) and total yards per game (416.8) in the school record books. In addition, MSU became the first Football Bowl Subdivision team in 2007 to feature a 2,000-yard passer (Brian Hoyer), a 1,000-yard rusher (Javon Ringer) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Devin Thomas), as the feat was accomplished in Game 11 against Purdue.

Ringer rushed for 1,447 yards, the sixth-best mark in MSU single-season history, while Thomas established school records in receptions (79) and all-purpose yards (2,590). Thomas' record-breaking season propelled him to become a second-round pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by Washington, while tight end Kellen Davis was selected in the fifth round by the Chicago.

PAT NARDUZZI DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Pat Narduzzi is in his fourth year as defensive coordinator at Michigan State.

MSU has had a first-team All-Big Ten performer in each of Narduzzi's three seasons, including 2009, when linebacker Greg Jones became the first Spartan to be named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. Jones earned consensus first-team All-America honors and also garnered first-team All-Big Ten accolades for the second straight season after leading the conference and ranking third nationally with 154 tackles. Jones was rated the No. 1 linebacker in the nation by CollegeFootballNews.com and earned the Linebacker Trophy (Linebacker of the Year) by the College Football Performance Awards.

In addition to Jones, defensive tackle Jerel Worthy was named a Freshman All-American in 2009 after ranking second on the team in tackles for loss (9 for 34 yards) and sacks (4.5 for 23 yards). He is the second player to earn Freshman All-America honors under Narduzzi at MSU (Jones). Overall, four Spartans on defense were recognized with All-Big Ten honors in 2009, including honorable mention selections Trevor Anderson, Chris L. Rucker and Jeremy Ware. Ware was also selected in the seventh round of the 2010 NFL Draft by Oakland.

Michigan State's strength in 2009 was stopping the run, as the Spartans ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 24th nationally by allowing just 113.2 rushing yards a game. MSU limited their opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards in six games during the season. The Spartans also put pressure on the quarterback, ranking third in the conference and 17th (tied) in the country with 35 sacks.

The Spartan defense featured several playmakers in 2008, as Narduzzi tutored six players on the defensive side of the ball to All-Big Ten honors. MSU placed two players - Jones and safety Otis Wiley - on the All-Big Ten first team, marking the first time since 2000 that the Spartans have had two defensive first-team selections in the same season. Jones, who led the Big Ten during conference play in tackles, was the first Spartan linebacker in seven years to garner first-team All-Big Ten accolades. Wiley anchored the Spartan secondary and ranked among the league leaders in interceptions (4) and passes defended (11).

Michigan State's defense saw marked improvement in 2007 under Narduzzi's direction. The Spartans recorded 40 sacks, 24 more than it produced the entire 2006 season. In fact, the 40 sacks were the third-highest total in MSU single-season history and exceeded the Spartans' combined sack totals for the previous two seasons (32). The Spartans ranked fourth in the Big Ten (tied) and No. 14 in the NCAA, averaging 3.08 sacks a game. By comparison, the Spartans finished 10th in the conference and No. 103 nationally in sacks in 2006, averaging just 1.33 per game. MSU also finished third in the conference and 11th in the nation in tackles for loss with 7.69 per game. In addition, MSU ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 30th nationally in rushing defense (125.8 yards per game).Three Spartans garnered All-Big Ten accolades on the defensive side of the ball, including first-team selection (defensive end) Jonal Saint-Dic, who set a Big Ten single-season record and led the nation with eight forced fumbles. Defensive end Ervin Baldwin led the team with 18.5 tackles for losses, the second-best total in school history, and was taken in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by Chicago.

COACHING STAFF

HARLON BARNETT
SECONDARY COACH

Harlon Barnett, a four-year letterwinner at Michigan State (1986-89) as a defensive back who was named a captain as a senior, is in his fourth season as the Spartans' secondary coach. Barnett returned to East Lansing with seven years of professional playing experience and nine seasons of coaching experience under his belt.

Two Spartan cornerbacks earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in 2009, including senior Jeremy Ware, who recorded a career-high 52 tackles and five pass break-ups while starting every game. He went on to be selected in the seventh round of the 2010 NFL Draft by Oakland. Chris L. Rucker was named honorable mention All-Big Ten for the second straight year as he led the team with seven pass break-ups and compiled a career-high 58 tackles. In a secondary of veterans, sophomore safety Trenton Robinson also stood out with his 67 tackles, good for fourth on the team. Barnett had to deal with multiple injuries to his unit for the second straight year in 2009, as he used six different starting lineup combinations throughout the season.

Barnett's secondary unit displayed depth and tenacity during the 2008 season. A rash of injuries forced Barnett to utilize nine different starting lineups, as four players made their first career starts. Week after week, a new player stepped up and produced when given an opportunity. Leading the way was first-team All-Big Ten selection and Jim Thorpe Award finalist Otis Wiley, who ranked among the league leaders in interceptions (4) and passes defended (11). The defensive backfield combined to account for 14 interceptions and 50 pass break-ups, with both totals increasing from the previous season.

In his first season at MSU, Barnett led a secondary that ranked fourth in the Big Ten in pass defense. Under his direction, former walk-on turned team captain Travis Key earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in his first year as a starter, as Key ranked third on the team in tackles (69) and second in pass break-ups (6) and interceptions (2) in 2007. He also tutored boundary corner Kendell Davis-Clark, who led the team in pass break-ups with eight and ranked second on the team in tackles with 72, and Wiley, who led the team with four interceptions. Seven different players combined for 12 interceptions, the most for a Spartan team since 2003.

The 43-year-old Barnett spent three seasons as secondary coach on Mark Dantonio's staff at Cincinnati. He landed his first collegiate coaching job as a graduate assistant at LSU in 2003 under Nick Saban, where he was a part of the Tigers' National Championship campaign. He began his coaching career at Princeton High School in Cincinnati, where he spent two seasons as the secondary coach (1998-99) and three years as the defensive coordinator (2000-02).

A native of Cincinnati, Barnett was a three-year starter for Coach George Perles at Michigan State. He was a member of the 1987 Big Ten and 1988 Rose Bowl championship team that went 9-2-1 overall and finished eighth in the final polls. Barnett, who also played in the 1989 Gator Bowl and the 1989 Aloha Bowl during his time as a Spartan player, earned first-team All-America recognition by The Sporting News as a senior in 1989. He finished his career with 154 tackles, six interceptions and 13 pass break-ups.

Following his impressive career at Michigan State, Barnett was taken in the fourth round of the 1990 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns, where he played for three seasons (1990-92). He also spent two seasons at New England (1993-94) and two more with Minnesota (1995-96).

TED GILL

In his three years as the defensive line coach at Michigan State, Ted Gill has continued his career-long trend of developing productive and impactful players.

The 2009 Spartan defensive line featured two new starters and a steady mix of underclassmen in the rotation, but the unit still managed to help the defense rank third in the Big Ten and 17th nationally in sacks. The line was also instrumental in stopping the run, as the Spartans finished fourth in the Big Ten and 24th nationally by allowing just 113.2 rushing yards a game. MSU limited their opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards in six games. Veteran end Trevor Anderson led the line with 45 tackles (7.5 for loss) and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors. Anderson, who also played under Gill at Cincinnati, amassed 39.5 tackles for loss and 22 sacks in his career. Defensive tackle Jerel Worthy was named a Freshman All-American after ranking second on the team in tackles for loss (9 for 34 yards) and sacks (4.5 for 23 yards). Opposite of Anderson, junior end Colin Neely steadily improved in his first year as a starter, posting career highs in tackles (24), tackles for loss (7.0) and sacks (3.0).

In 2008, three Spartans on the defensive line earned honorable mention All-Big Ten, including seniors Justin Kershaw and Brandon Long, who both recorded career highs in tackles for loss and sacks. Anderson, in his first year as a Spartan after transferring from Cincinnati, collected a career high and team-leading eight sacks, which ranked sixth in the Big Ten. Anderson was one of 35 players in the nation named to the midseason watch list for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award.

Michigan State's defensive line saw a dramatic improvement in Gill's first season. Defensive ends Jonal Saint-Dic and Ervin Baldwin enjoyed breakout seasons, while Kershaw and Ogemdi Nwagbuo also had their most productive years wearing the Green and White. Saint-Dic, a first-team All-Big Ten selection, set a Big Ten record and led the nation with eight forced fumbles. The senior ranked fourth in the conference and 16th in the NCAA in sacks with 10, marking the sixth-best total on MSU's single-season chart. For his efforts, Saint-Dic was named a second-team Walter Camp All-American and was one of eight finalists for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award. Baldwin, a seventh-round draft choice by the Chicago Bears, led the team and ranked third in the Big Ten with 18.5 tackles for loss, which was the second-highest total in school history. Kershaw and Nwagbuo each recorded career highs with 30 and 28 tackles, respectively.

Gill arrived in East Lansing with 32 years of coaching experience, including four seasons as the defensive line coach at Cincinnati (2003-06). His resume features stops at almost every level of football. He coached in the professional ranks with the NFL's Carolina Panthers (1996-98), XFL's Los Angeles Extreme (2001) and CFL's Montreal Alouettes (2002).

Prior to spending the 1995 season as defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State, Gill worked for five years as an assistant coach under Hayden Fry at Iowa (1990-94) where he coached the defensive line and linebackers, helping the Hawkeyes earn three bowl appearances (1991 Rose, 1991 Holiday and 1993 Alamo).

DAN ROUSHAR
OFFENSIVE LINE

Dan Roushar, who has coached a multitude of positions in his 26 seasons in the coaching profession, is in his fourth year coaching the Spartan offensive line.

Two Spartan offensive linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition in 2009 under Roushar's direction, as center Joel Nitchman was named second-team All-Big Ten by the media and left guard Joel Foreman garnered honorable mention accolades by the coaches and media. For the second straight season, Roushar's unit was one of the most effective in the Big Ten protecting the quarterback, as the Spartans gave up only 14 sacks, the fewest amount of any team in the conference.

The Spartans featured the nation's fourth-leading rusher in Javon Ringer in 2008, thanks in large part to the strength of the offensive line play. In addition, the unit allowed just 24 sacks all season, ranking fourth in the Big Ten. Four of MSU's five starters were awarded postseason honors, including second-team All-Big Ten selections Roland Martin (right guard) and Jesse Miller (right tackle). In addition, Nitchman earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors while Foreman was named Freshman All-American.

Michigan State was one of the top rushing teams in the nation during the 2007 regular season, thanks in large part to the offensive line. Roushar had to juggle his lineup several times, using eight different starting combinations, but he led his unit to be one of the most productive in the Big Ten as the Spartans ranked fourth in the conference and No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing, averaging 198.2 yards a game. He tutored left tackle Pete Clifford, who went on to earn second-team All-Big Ten honors.

Roushar arrived in East Lansing after serving as offensive line coach under Coach Dantonio at Cincinnati for two seasons (2005-06). In 2006, he instructed offensive guard Trevor Canfield, who earned second-team All-BIG EAST honors as a sophomore.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati coaching staff, Roushar worked with the running backs at Illinois for two seasons (2003-04), adding the duties of offensive coordinator in 2004.

Roushar spent six years as offensive line coach at Northern Illinois (1997-2002), where he also served as the offensive coordinator for the final five seasons. During his tenure at NIU, the Huskies earned a share of back-to-back Mid-American Conference West Division titles in 2001 and 2002. Roushar helped develop three first-team All-MAC selections, in offensive tackle Ryan Diem (1999-2000), center McAllister Collins (2000) and offensive tackle Tim Vincent (2002). Diem, a fourth-round pick by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2001 NFL Draft, started 15 games at right tackle in 2006 for the Super Bowl Champions. While on the NIU coaching staff, Roushar also recruited offensive tackle Doug Free, who was taken by the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL Draft.

Roushar launched his coaching career at Northern Illinois as a student assistant in 1984 under Hall of Fame coach Bill Mallory. Roushar then spent seven seasons at Butler, the first three (1986-88) as offensive backfield coach and the final four (1989-92) as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The 49-year-old Roushar also has made coaching stops at Rhode Island (1993) and Ball State (1994). During his first two-year stint at Illinois, he worked with the Illini quarterbacks in 1995 before taking over the offensive tackles and tight ends in 1996.

BRAD SALEM
RUNNING BACKS
FIRST SEASON

Brad Salem, who compiled a 31-26 record in five seasons as head coach at NCAA Division II Augustana College in Sioux Falls, S.D., is in his first year as running backs coach at Michigan State.

The 39-year-old Salem led Augustana College to back-to-back 8-4 records and consecutive trips to the Mineral Water Bowl in 2008-09. The eight wins matched the school single-season record. In its first two seasons as members of the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference, Augustana finished fourth and tied for third, respectively, in the final standings and had 10 players earn South Division first-team all-conference honors.

After getting off to a 3-0 start in 2009, the Vikings made their first appearance in the American Football Coaches Association Division II Top 25 since 1989. Augustana finished fifth in the NSIC in total offense last season, averaging 400.9 yards per game.

In 2008, Augustana won six of its last eight games, including a 37-16 victory over Missouri Western State in the Mineral Water Bowl in Excelsior Springs, Mo., as the Vikings rushed for 281 yards and five touchdowns against the Griffons. Augustana ranked among the NSIC leaders in rushing offense (third at 203.7 ypg.), scoring offense (third at 30.8 points per game) and total offense (fourth at 379.7 ypg.) in 2008.

In his first season as head coach in 2005, Salem guided Augustana to a 6-5 record – the program's first winning season in three years.

Prior to being promoted to head coach, he spent two seasons as an assistant coach under Jim Heinitz, serving as quarterbacks coach in 2003 and offensive coordinator in 2004.

Before returning to his alma mater in 2003, Salem coached the quarterbacks at O'Gorman High School in Sioux Falls, S.D., during the 2002 season.

He previously spent three years as passing game and recruiting coordinator at South Dakota (1999-2001) and two seasons as offensive and recruiting coordinator at Luther College (1997-98) in Decorah, Iowa.

In 1996, Salem filled the role of defensive coordinator at Everett High School in Lansing, Mich. From 1994-95, he served as a graduate assistant under George Perles and Nick Saban at Michigan State, working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A native of Sioux Falls, S.D., Salem launched his coaching career in the European Professional League in Paris, France, where he was the offensive coordinator for Robinson Sphinx in the spring of 1993. That fall, he worked with the defensive backs as a student coach at Augustana.

Salem began his collegiate playing career as a quarterback at Northern Arizona in 1988-89 before transferring to Augustana where he played quarterback and wide receiver for Coach Heinitz from 1990-92.

Salem shares his love of coaching football with his father Joe, former head coach at South Dakota (1966-74), Northern Arizona (1975-78) and Minnesota (1979-83); as well as his older brother Tim, tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Central Florida; and his twin brother Brent, offensive coordinator at O'Gorman High School.

COACHING STAFF

MARK STATEN
TIGHT ENDS/TACKLES
RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Mark Staten, who adds a mix of professional playing experience with a solid coaching background, is in his fourth season as tight ends/tackles coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State.

Staten oversees one of the deepest and most talented tight end units in the nation, as four players combined for 56 receptions, 780 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches in 2009. The group was led by Charlie Gantt, who earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors for the second straight year following his 22-catch, 348-yard performance as a junior. In his first year as a Spartan, Brian Linthicum displayed his versatility with 20 catches for 266 yards, while true freshman Dion Sims led all Spartan tight ends with three touchdown receptions en route to being named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

In addition to his work with the tight ends, Staten's mentoring of the offensive tackles paid dividends once again in 2009, as the unit allowed the fewest amount of sacks in the Big Ten (14).

As recruiting coordinator, Staten helped put together a 2009 recruiting class that analysts ranked among the nation's Top 25 (MaxPreps/Tom Lemming No. 12, PrepStar No. 15, Rivals.com No. 17 and Scouts, Inc. No. 21). The Spartans followed that effort with another stellar class in 2010 that was ranked among the nation's Top 30 (MaxPreps/Tom Lemming No. 22, Rivals.com No. 29).

In 2008, Staten's offensive tackles helped pave the way for Javon Ringer, the nation's fourth-leading rusher and consensus first-team All-American. Under Staten's tutelage, right tackle Jesse Miller earned his first career Big Ten honors, garnering second-team accolades from the league's media.

Staten played an instrumental role in helping the Spartan offensive line become one of the best units in the Big Ten in 2007. He tutored left tackle Pete Clifford, who went on to earn second-team All-Big Ten honors. With the tight end position playing more of a prominent role in MSU's new offensive system, Staten also helped Kellen Davis have his most productive year as a Spartan. Davis, a fifth-round NFL Draft pick by the Chicago Bears, recorded career highs in receptions (32), receiving yards (513) and touchdowns (6) as a senior.

Following the 2006 regular season, Staten was one of eight assistant coaches to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to East Lansing. In 2006, Staten tutored team MVP Brent Celek, who set Cincinnati career records for receptions (88), receiving yards (1,114) and touchdowns (14) by a tight end. Celek, a second-team All-BIG EAST selection as a senior, was chosen by the Philadelphia Eagles in the fifth round of the 2007 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining Cincinnati's coaching staff, Staten spent two seasons at Ohio State (2002-03), where he contributed to the Buckeyes' 2002 National Championship. As the offensive graduate assistant, he worked with the offensive linemen, tight ends and long snappers.

A four-year starter at defensive tackle at Miami-Ohio, Staten earned All-Mid-American Conference honors as a senior. He made the Cincinnati Bengals' practice squad as a free agent in 1993 before being added to the New England Patriots' roster for the conclusion of the 1993 season as well as part of the 1994 campaign. Staten was drafted by the World Football League's Barcelona Dragons in 1995, but sustained a career-ending knee injury.

Staten started his coaching career in 1999 as an assistant coach at Crespi Carmelite High School in Encino, Calif. He returned to Miami-Ohio in 2000 as a student assistant coach and was promoted to graduate assistant in 2001.

MIKE TRESSEL
LINEBACKERS/SPECIAL TEAMS
FOURTH SEASON

Mike Tressel enters his fourth season as linebackers and special teams coach at Michigan State.

In his role as linebackers coach over the last three seasons, Mike Tressel has mentored two of the top linebackers in the Big Ten, in Greg Jones and Eric Gordon. Jones and Gordon, who have each started 27 consecutive games at linebacker, have combined for 598 tackles, 59 tackles for loss and 23 sacks in their careers.

A consensus All-American, Jones became the first Spartan to win Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year accolades after collecting 154 tackles in 2009, the most in the conference and third nationally. He also led the team and ranked among the national leaders in tackles for loss (14 for 69 yards) and sacks (9 for 53 yards). Preceding his All-America campaign, Jones earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2008, the first Spartan linebacker to do so since 2001. He led the team in tackles for the second-straight season with 127 and his 89 tackles in conference play ranked first in the Big Ten. Jones earned consensus Freshman All-America honors in 2007 after leading the team and all Big Ten freshmen with 78 tackles, becoming the first true freshman to lead Michigan State in tackles since 1976.

Gordon, who garnered Big Ten All-Freshman honors in 2007, improved his productivity as a sophomore to rank second on the team and 13th in the Big Ten with 85 tackles. As a junior in 2009, Gordon set a career high in tackles with 92, finishing 11th in the conference.

Tressel also oversees a successful special teams unit that has been one of the best in the Big Ten since his arrival. Brett Swenson, a 2009 first-team All-Big Ten selection, became MSU's all-time leader in field goals (71), points scored (377) and extra points (164) last season. Swenson was named a Lou Groza Award semifinalist and finished his career tied for third in Big Ten history with his 71 field goals. Swenson tied a school record in 2008 with 22 field goals en route to being named second-team All-Big Ten. Anchored by Keshawn Martin, MSU ranked eighth in the nation in kick returns in 2009, averaging 25.9 yards per return. Martin was the 11th-ranked return man in the nation (28.9-yard avg.). Punter Aaron Bates was a second-team all-conference pick in 2008, as he ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 30th in the nation with his 42.0-yard punting average. In 2007, Devin Thomas established a Big Ten single-season record with 1,135 kick return yards.

The 36-year-old Tressel played a key role in Cincinnati's success over his three seasons at UC, as the Bearcats earned two bowl invitations. Prior to joining Dantonio's staff at Cincinnati, Tressel spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State (2002-03), where he contributed to the Buckeyes' National Championship team in 2002. Tressel previously coached at Wartburg (Iowa) College for four seasons (1998-01), helping the school to a combined record of 36-4 including one conference title.

Tressel comes from a bloodline of successful coaches, as his uncle Jim Tressel won four NCAA I-AA championships at Youngstown State before leading Ohio State to the 2002 National Championship. His grandfather, Lee Tressel, ranked as one of the winningest coaches in Division III history and won a National Championship at Baldwin-Wallace College. DAVE WARNER

Under the direction of Dave Warner the last three seasons, Spartan quarterbacks have been posting record numbers.

In 2009, Kirk Cousins' first year as a starter, the sophomore quarterback finished the season ranked among the Top 10 Spartan single-season leaders in 200-yard passing games (eight - 3rd), passing yards (2,680 - 4th), pass completions (198 - 6th) and touchdown passes (19 - tied for 7th). In addition, Cousins' passing efficiency rating of 142.6 ranked third in the Big Ten and 25th nationally, while also ranking eighth in MSU single-season history. Warner also tutored Keith Nichol, who played significant minutes in his first season for the Green and White. Nichol threw for 764 yards and seven touchdowns while compiling a 143.2 quarterback rating. With their successful seasons, Cousins and Nichol combined to give Michigan State the No. 2 passing attack in the Big Ten Conference, averaging nearly 270 yards per game. The Spartans also ranked No. 1 in the league and 17th in the nation in passing efficiency with their 145.1 quarterback rating. MSU established a school record with 28 touchdown passes in 2009, and the 3,502 passing yards ranked second in the school record books.

In 2007 and 2008, Warner mentored Brian Hoyer, who became one of the most productive quarterbacks in Spartan history. Hoyer ranks among MSU's career leaders in pass attempts (No. 2 at 896), passing yards (No. 3 with 6,159), pass completions (No. 3 at 500) and TD passes (No. 6 with 35). Hoyer, who threw for more than 2,000 yards in back-to-back seasons, was one of just three MSU quarterbacks to record 6,000 career passing yards. Warner also developed Hoyer's game management skills, as the senior captain accumulated a 16-11 record and led the Spartans to back-to-back bowl appearances. After signing a free agent contract in April 2009, Hoyer has worked his way into the back-up quarterback role for the New England Patriots.

Hoyer earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors after throwing for 2,404 yards and nine touchdowns as a senior. In 2007, Hoyer became the fifth Spartan quarterback to eclipse the 2,500-yard milestone in a season and finished with 2,725 passing yards, the third-highest single-season total in MSU history. Hoyer also ranked among the top Spartan single-season leaders in pass attempts (second with 376), completions (third with 223) and TD passes (tied for fourth with 20).

Warner has been a quarterbacks coach and/or offensive coordinator or passing game coordinator for 21 of his previous 26 seasons as a college assistant.

Before coaching one season with Mark Dantonio at Cincinnati, Warner coached wide receivers at Southern Miss in 2003 and 2004. He has also made stops as the passing game coordinator at Houston (2001-02), offensive coordinator at Connecticut (1999-2000), passing game coordinator at Wyoming (1998) and quarterbacks coach at Bucknell (1997). Warner and Dantonio also coached together for four seasons at Kansas, when Dantonio was the secondary coach for the Jayhawks from 1991-94. Warner spent nine total seasons as quarterbacks coach for Kansas (1988-96). Prior to KU, Warner spent four years on the staff at Kent State (1984-87), including the last two as quarterbacks coach.

A three-year letterwinner as a quarterback at Syracuse, Warner finished his playing career ranked seventh in career passing yards (2,593) and was a member of the 1979 team that won the Independence Bowl. After graduating in 1982, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Orange, working with the quarterbacks and offensive backs.

JEFF DUVENDECK
VIDEO INTERN/OFFENSE

Jeff Duvendeck is in his first year as a video intern for the Michigan State football program.

The 32-year-old Duvendeck arrived in East Lansing, Mich., after spending the last four years at Northern Michigan (2006-09) where he served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Under his direction, the Wildcat offense averaged 31.6 points per game in 2009 and 415.7 total yards and 28.2 points in 2008.

Prior to joining the NMU coaching staff, he worked for three seasons at Michigan Tech (2003-05) where he served as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. During his tenure with the Huskies, Duvendeck coached three NCAA Division II All-Americans, including two who were selected as the GLIAC's Offensive Lineman of the Year.

During the 2002 season, he served as a graduate assistant under Brian Kelly at Grand Valley State where he worked with the offensive line and helped the Lakers win the NCAA Division II National Championship.

A native of Flushing, Mich., Duvendeck spent the 2001 season as a graduate assistant at Tiffin (Ohio) University where he worked with the running backs.

A former running back at Central Michigan, he lettered in 2000 and earned his bachelor's degree in health promotion and rehabilitation in 2001. Duvendeck is currently pursuing his master's degree in kinesiology.

ARCHIE COLLINS
VIDEO INTERN/DEFENSE
FIRST SEASON

Former Michigan State walk-on safety Archie Collins is in his first year as a video intern for the Spartan football program.

The 33-year-old Collins returned to Michigan State after coaching in the Detroit Public School League for the last seven years. During his tenure in the PSL, he coached nine players who went on to earn all-state honors and 28 players who gained all-city recognition.

A Detroit native, Collins spent the last four years as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Southeastern High School (2006-09) where he helped the Jungaleers win back-to-back district and division championships in 2008-09. In addition, Southeastern won the PSL city title in 2008. During his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Jugaleers recorded 15 shutouts, 126 takeaways and scored 16 defensive touchdowns.

During the 2005 season, Collins served as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Mackenzie High School.

He worked for two seasons as the defensive backs coach at his high school alma mater, Cass Tech (2003-04). During his two-year stint, the secondary registered 29 interceptions, 22 pass break-ups and scored four defensive TDs.

Collins spent two seasons on the Michigan State football roster (1996-97), earning Scout Team Player of the Week honors twice during his career, and lettered in 1996. Current Spartan head coach Mark Dantonio served as his position coach during his collegiate career. He earned his bachelor's degree in finance from MSU in 1998.

Collins and his wife Brandi have a daughter, Amber, and a son, Archie IV.

MSU RECORD: 58-23-7

This Owosso, Mich., native revolutionized MAC's football program during his first of three stints as Aggie coach. Chester Brewer was a four-sport star at Wisconsin, earning All-Western honors in football. A defensive genius, Aggie teams posted shutouts in 49 of the 88 games Brewer coached. His greatest efforts included a 0-0 tie against Fielding Yost's 1908 Michigan team and a 17-0 shutout over Notre Dame in 1910. Brewer, who later coached at Missouri, died in 1953 at age 77.

GEORGE GAUTHIER

MSU RECORD: 4-3-0

The first Michigan State alumnus to direct an Aggie team was George Gauthier, a quarterback under John Macklin in 1912 and '13. Though the record was only 4-3, his 1918 club produced one of the most astounding upsets in Aggie history, defeating Knute Rockne's first Notre Dame team which starred a sophomore back named George Gipp. A year after leaving MAC, Gauthier assumed duties as athletic director and head coach at Ohio Wesleyan, a dual position he held for 34 years. He died in 1964 at the age of 74.

MSU RECORD: 4-6-0

George "Potsy" Clark, an All-America quarterback under the legendary Bob Zuppke at Illinois, served as MAC's coach for only one season. The Aggies had a losing record, but one of those victories was a record 109-0 rout of Olivet. Among his other stops in college coaching were at Minnesota and Butler. He also served as athletic director at Nebraska, 1945-1953. Clark is probably best known as head coach of the Detroit Lions that won the 1935 NFL title. He died in 1972 at the age of 78.

RALPH YOUNG

MSU RECORD: 18-22-1

An outstanding player for both Fielding Yost at Michigan and Amos Alonzo Stagg at Chicago, the roly-poly Ralph Young coached MAC and MSC with only moderate success. However, he brought stability to a program that badly needed it, laying the foundation on which the school's athletic structure grew. MAC nearly surprised powerful Michigan in its stadium dedication game of 1924, losing 7-0. Young, who also was a fine track and field coach, is best known for his success as State's athletic director, 1923-54. He died in 1962 at the age of 72.

Michigan football All-American Harry Kipke directed the Spartans for only one season. A Lansing (Mich.) High School graduate, he began his coaching career with a 103-0 victory over Kalamazoo College, but highlights after that were few and far between. Kipke nearly directed State to an upset victory over his alma mater, and that performance probably enticed Michigan to hire him as its coach the very next season. He died in 1972 at the age of 73.

JIM CROWLEY

MSU RECORD: 22-8-3

Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's immortal Four Horsemen, joined Michigan State's staff as its head football coach in 1929. His arrival became the catalyst which transformed a mediocre program into a nationally-respected major power for the first time since the coaching era of John Macklin. "Sleepy Jim" produced four-straight winning seasons for the Spartans. A pair of 0-0 ties against Michigan in 1930 and '31 broke State's 14-game losing streak to the Wolverines, a span which saw UM outscore MSC by a total of 392-9. A night game loss at Georgetown spoiled the Spartans' otherwise undefeated season in 1930. He was named head coach at Fordham in 1933, becoming the architect of the "Seven Blocks of Granite." Crowley died in 1986 at the age of 83.

CHARLIE BACHMAN

MSU RECORD: 70-34-10

Charlie Bachman, another Notre Dame alumnus, succeeded Jim Crowley as head football coach at Michigan State, coming to East Lansing after a successful stint at Florida. A teammate of Knute Rockne, Bachman employed the Notre Dame system and forged 10 winning seasons in 13 years. During his second season with the Spartans in 1934, he led State to an 8-1 record, which included a 16-0 victory over Michigan, the school's first since 1915. That marked the first of four-straight wins over UM. MSC posted another 8-1 regular-season record in 1937 and received the school's first bid to a postseason bowl game, the 1938 Orange Bowl. Among Bachman's greatest Spartan players were guard Sid Wagner, State's first All-American since 1915, halfback John Pingel and fullback Jack Breslin. Bachman died in 1985 at the age of 93.

CLARENCE "BIGGIE" MUNN

MSU RECORD: 54-9-2

The most successful Spartan coach of all-time in terms of winning percentage (.857) is former Minnesota All-American Clarence "Biggie" Munn. He came to MSC directly from Syracuse where he served as head coach for only one season. Despite an inauspicious 55-0 drubbing from Michigan in his Spartan debut, Munn quickly turned things around as the team ended the 1947 campaign with a 7-2 record. Workman-like progress continued the next two seasons, but then the Spartans burst onto the national scene in 1950, finishing in the Top 10 in the final wire service polls with an 8-1 mark that included victories over third-ranked Michigan and Notre Dame. Munn compiled a 27-1 worksheet over the next three years, winning back-to-back national championships in 1951 and '52 with identical 9-0 records. In 1952, Munn earned national Coach of the Year honors from the American Football Coaches Association after the Spartans produced wins over three ranked opponents, including No. 17 Penn State, No. 8 Purdue and No. 6 Notre Dame. MSC ran its winning streak to 28-straight games in 1953 before losing at Purdue, 6-0. In their first season of competition in the Big Ten, the Spartans grabbed a share of the 1953 league championship with a 5-1 record. MSC posted its third consecutive 9-win season in 1953, thanks to its 28-20 victory over UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. In seven seasons at MSC, Munn produced 18 All-Americans, including the great two-way tackle Don Coleman. He was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959. About a week after his team's Rose Bowl victory, Munn stepped down from coaching to assume the duties as MSC's athletics director. He served in that capacity for 18 years, building the Spartans into a nationally prominent football program. In 1971, a stroke forced Munn to retire from MSU and four years later in 1975, he died at the age of 66.

HUGH DUFFY DAUGHERTY

MSU RECORD: 109-69-5

One of the most popular coaches in the history of college football was Michigan State's personable Duffy Daugherty. An undergraduate star for Syracuse, he was a member of Biggie Munn's staff there in 1946 when State hired Munn. Daugherty served initially as line coach at MSU, tutoring such Spartan standouts as Don Coleman and Frank Kush. Then, following State's 1954 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA, Munn stepped in as athletic director and named Duffy as head coach. Daugherty's '55 club went 9-1 and received the Big Ten's Rose Bowl bid, defeating UCLA, 17-14. His greatest teams, though, came in 1965 and '66 when those two star-studded squads posted a cumulative record of 19-1-1 and two Big Ten championships. The only loss was a 14-12 defeat at the hands of UCLA in the 1966 Rose Bowl and the lone tie was the monumental 10-10 "Game of the Century" vs. Notre Dame in '66. Duffy's 1965 Spartans were a defensive juggernaut and won the No. 1 ranking in the final UPI poll. During Duffy's 19 seasons at MSU, 29 different players earned first-team All-America honors. The list included such stars as Earl Morrall, Sherman Lewis, George Webster, Clinton Jones, Gene Washington, Bubba Smith, Brad Van Pelt and Billy Joe DuPree. Daugherty's individual honors included National Coach of the Year laurels in both 1955 and '65, and induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1984. Duffy died in 1987 at the age of 72, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

DENNY STOLZ

MSU RECORD: 19-13-1

Denny Stolz, defensive coordinator under Duffy Daugherty, was the 16th man to direct Spartan football fortunes. The graduate and former head coach at Alma College started off slowly at MSU, but soon built the Spartans into a Big Ten challenger. Stolz' second club finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State in the 1974 Big Ten standings, earning him conference Coach of the Year honors. The highlight that year was an unforgettable upset victory over the top-ranked Buckeyes at Spartan Stadium. His final MSU team tied for third in the conference standings with the major accomplishment an upset victory at Notre Dame. Stolz left MSU following the 1975 season. He coached at Bowling Green State, 1977-85, and then served as head coach at San Diego State, 1986-88.

DARRYL ROGERS

MSU RECORD: 24-18-2

Darryl Rogers joined the Spartan football staff following stints at Hayward State and San Jose State in California. Like the two men who preceeded him at Michigan State, Rogers' first team struggled a bit, but he bounced back big in season number two. The Spartans, who set a conference record for offensive proficiency, finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State with a 6-1-1 Big Ten record. In 1978, MSU shared the Big Ten title with the Wolverines, earning Rogers Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. NCAA probation prohibited State from going to the Rose Bowl. Following the 1979 season, he left MSU for the head coaching position at Arizona State, 1980-84. Following his stint with the Sun Devils, Rogers signed as head coach of the Detroit Lions, 1985-88. During the 1991 season, he served as the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. He served as the athletic director at Southern Connecticut State for 10 years, retiring in 2003.

FRANK “MUDDY” WATERS

MSU RECORD: 10-23-0

Frank “Muddy” Waters became only the second former Michigan State player to coach the Spartans. The personable coach was named head man at MSU one day before his 57th birthday, following a highly successful career at Hillsdale College and Saginaw Valley State. Waters compiled a 138-46-5 record in 20 seasons at Hillsdale (1954-73) and a 25-26-2 mark in five years at Saginaw Valley (1975-79), while building the program from scratch. Three Spartans – Ray Stachowicz, Morten Andersen and James Burroughs – won All-America honors during Muddy’s tenure at MSU. Thanks to his contributions to small college football in Michigan, Waters was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2006 at the age of 83.

GEORGE PERLES

MSU RECORD: 68-67-4

Former Spartan gridder and assistant coach George Perles saw his dream of becoming head coach of the MSU football program come true when he was named to the position on Dec. 3, 1982. After posting just 10 wins in three seasons prior to his arrival, Perles helped return MSU to national prominence with two bowl appearances in his first three seasons. In 1987, Perles and the Spartans captured the Big Ten title and made the program’s first Rose Bowl appearance since 1966. The Spartans topped USC, 20-17, ending the year at 9-2-1, the most victories by an MSU squad since 1966, along with a No. 8 national ranking. His efforts that season earned him Football News’ Coach of the Year honors. The Rose Bowl began a string of four-straight bowl appearances which included triumphs in the 1989 Aloha and ’90 John Hancock Bowls. The architect of the dominating Pittsburgh Steelers’ defense during the Super Bowl years (1974-75-78-79), 50 of his players were selected in the NFL Draft, including nine first-rounders. He guided the Spartans to a Big Ten slate of 53-42-3, and to seven bowl games. In 2007, Perles was inducted into the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame and the MSU Athletics Hall of Fame. (Career record reflects five 1994 wins forfeited by MSU as part of 1996 self-imposed sanctions.)

NICK SABAN

MSU RECORD: 34-24-1

Nick Saban became the 20th head football coach in MSU history on Dec. 3, 1994, following a highly successful NFL stint with the Cleveland Browns. As the Browns' defensive coordinator, he led the NFL's stingiest scoring defense in 1994 as that unit allowed the sixth-fewest points in league history. His winning ways continued at Michigan State, as he promptly became the first Spartan coach to lead his teams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, including the 1995 Independence, '96 Sun and '97 Aloha Bowls. The Spartans returned to national prominence in 1999, going 9-2, and earning a trip to the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. Prior to the bowl game, Saban left to take the head coaching job at LSU. Saban previously coached at MSU, serving as an assistant coach from 1983-87, helping the Spartans to the 1987 Big Ten and '88 Rose Bowl championships.

MSU RECORD: 16-17

Bobby Williams became the 21st head coach in Spartan history when he assumed control of the team on Dec. 5, 1999, after Nick Saban left for LSU. Prior to taking over as head coach, Williams coached Michigan State's running backs for 10 years. He made his head-coaching debut on Jan. 1, 2000, and led the Spartans to a last-second victory over No. 10 Florida, 37-34, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. With MSU's 44-35 triumph over No. 20 Fresno State in the 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic, Williams became the first head coach in Spartan football history to win his first two bowl games.

MORRIS WATTS

MSU RECORD: 1-2

Michigan State veteran offensive coordinator Morris Watts served as interim head coach for the final three games of the 2002 season. Watts made his head-coaching debut on Nov. 9, 2002, and led the Spartans to a 56-21 victory at Indiana, snapping a four-game losing streak. He became the 11th head coach in school history to produce a win in his Spartan debut. Watts enjoyed three stints as MSU's offensive coordinator, holding that position for a total of 12 seasons (1986-90, 1992-94 and 1999-2002). He returned to Michigan State in 1999 following a four-year tenure as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at LSU (1995-98).

MSU RECORD: 22-26

John L. Smith became Michigan State University's 23rd head football coach on Dec. 19, 2002. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, produced an 8-4 regular-season record in 2003 and earned Dave McClain (Big Ten) Coach of the Year honors. His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in Spartan history. Smith came to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five straight bowl appearances and back-to-back C-USA titles in 2000-01. He posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State (1995-97) while leading the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho (1989-94) included five NCAA I-AA playoff appearances and five Top 20 finishes. Twelve of his 18 teams have participated in postseason play.

Renaldo Hill's interception in the end zone on a fourth-and-10 play iced Michigan State's 28-24 upset victory over top-ranked and previously undefeated Ohio State in Columbus on Nov. 7, 1998. It marked the Spartans' first win over a top-ranked team since beating Michigan in 1990.

MSU RECORD: 22-17

Mark Dantonio became Michigan State University's 24th head football coach on Nov. 27, 2006. Dantonio has led Michigan State to three-straight bowl appearances – a first for the program since 1995-97 – and has already won 22 games, the second most by any Spartan head coach in his first three seasons. He compiled an 18-17 record (.514) in three seasons at Cincinnati, including two postseason bowl appearances. Prior to accepting his first head coaching position at Cincinnati, Dantonio spent three years as defensive coordinator under Jim Tressel at Ohio State (2001-03) where he helped the Buckeyes to a combined record of 32-6 (.842), including the 2002 National Championship. He previously spent six seasons as secondary coach at Michigan State (1995-2000), including five years under Nick Saban and one under Bobby Williams. His college full-time coaching credits also include stops at Kansas (1991-94), Youngstown State (1986-90) and Akron (1985).

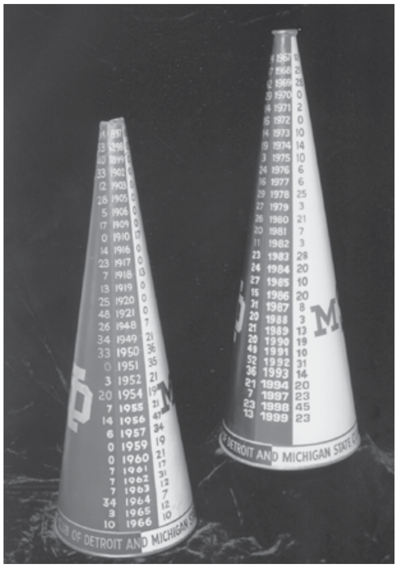
Paul Bunyan Trophy
Since 1953, the winner of the Michigan State-Michigan game has been presented the Paul Bunyan Trophy. The four-foot wooden statue was donated by then-Governor G. Mennen Williams to mark Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten. Since '53, Michigan leads the series 34-21-2. The trophy depicts the legendary giant lumberjack astride an axe with feet planted on a map of the state with flags representing the schools.



Megaphone Trophy
Since 1949, the winner of the Michigan State-Notre Dame game has been presented the Megaphone Trophy, sponsored jointly by the Detroit alumni clubs of both schools. The megaphone is printed half blue, with a gold ND monogram, and half white, with a green MSC. All previous game scores are listed on the trophy. Michigan State and Notre Dame played 36 consecutive seasons from 1959-94 until the two-year interruption of the series in 1995-96.

Old Brass Spittoon
Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and the MSU student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the IU Student Senate. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 190 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded Indiana: in 1820 and MAC in 1855. Since '50, Michigan State leads the series 40-12-1.

Land-Grant Trophy
Since the renewal of the series in 1993, the winner of the Michigan State-Penn State game has been presented the Land-Grant Trophy. The trophy honors the two universities' unique places in history as the two pioneer land-grant schools in the nation. Each institution was founded in 1855, Michigan State on Feb. 12 and Penn State on Feb. 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned. The trophy features pictures of campus landmarks, Michigan State's Beaumont Tower and Penn State's Old Main, plus replicas of the Spartan and Nittany Lion. Since 1993, Penn State leads the series 13-4.

*Served as interim head coach for the final three games of the 2002 season.

During “Biggie” Munn’s seven-year tenure from 1947-53, the Spartans won back-to-back National Championships in 1951 and 1952, rattled off a school record 28-game winning streak, and won the 1953 Big Ten co-championship in his final season as head coach.

Darryl Rogers earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in 1978 after the Spartans closed out the regular season on a seven-game winning streak to claim the school’s fourth conference title.

George Perles led the Spartans to the Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 victory over Southern Cal in the 1988 Rose Bowl. In 1990, Michigan State won its last five league games to earn a share of another Big Ten title.

In 19 seasons as Michigan State’s head coach (1954-72), Hugh Duffy Daugherty compiled a 109-69-5 record and led the Spartans to four National Championships (1955, 1957, 1965 and 1966).

FLOZELL ADAMS #76

OT | 6-7 | 330
BELLWOOD, ILL.

Flozell Adams captured first-team All-America recognition as picked by the Walter Camp Foundation as a senior in 1997. The '97 Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, Adams started all 12 games at left tackle and helped the Spartans to a No. 24 spot nationally in rushing offense (199.5 ypg.). He also opened holes for MSU running backs who tallied 100 or more yards seven times during the season. At 6-foot-7, 330 pounds, Adams allowed only two sacks and recorded 37 pancakes. He was drafted in the second round by the Dallas Cowboys in the 1998 NFL Draft.

ERIC ALLEN #24

TB | 5-9 | 161
GEORGETOWN, S.C.

Eric Allen brought home All-America honors his senior year in 1971 as chosen by the American Football Coaches Association. Allen rushed for a Big Ten-leading 1,494 yards in overall action, an MSU seasonal record that stood until 1985. In addition, Allen's 1,283 yards on the ground in league contests established a Big Ten mark, as did his 110 points, making him the first player in Big Ten history to crack the century mark. Allen broke two NCAA records, four Big Ten marks and nine MSU records in '71. His greatest game came against Purdue when he rushed for an NCAA-record 350 yards on 29 carries, a record that stood until 1978. Named the Big Ten's MVP in '71, he rushed for 100 or more yards on seven occasions and his 18 TDs represented school and Big Ten records. Career-wise, he finished as MSU's all-time leader in rushing attempts (521) and rushing yards (2,654). Drafted by the Baltimore Colts in the fourth round of the 1972 NFL Draft, he signed with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

MORTEN ANDERSEN #8

PK | 6-2 | 195
STREUR, DENMARK

Morten Andersen was an All-America honoree his senior year in 1981 as chosen by The Sporting News, United Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. He was MSU's leading scorer with 73 points on 28 PATs and 15 field goals (20 att.). He set a school and Big Ten record when he drilled a 63-yard field goal against Ohio State. In addition, opponents returned just 17 of his 56 kickoffs. Andersen closed out his college career ranked No. 1 on the MSU and Big Ten lists in field goals with 45 while holding down the top spot on the school's all-time chart in PATs (126) and total points (261). He recorded seven field goals of 50 or more yards and three others of 49 yards. Picked by the New Orleans Saints in the fourth round of the 1982 NFL Draft.

BOB APISA #45

FB | 6-1 | 212
HONOLULU, HAWAII

Bob Apisa was an All-America selection as a sophomore in 1965 by Football News and his junior year in 1966 by Football News and the New York News. In '65, despite missing most of the last three games due to a knee injury, he rushed for 666 yards, then the best seasonal mark turned in by a Spartan fullback, along with nine TDs. In 1966, Apisa once again was hampered by knee problems, but rushed for 445 yards and eight six-pointers. His career-high 140 yards on the ground against Michigan in a 20-7 victory earned him UPI Back of the Week honors. He finished his career as MSU's most prolific rushing fullback with 1,343 yards in 262 attempts. A ninth-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the '68 NFL Draft.

ED BAGDON #65

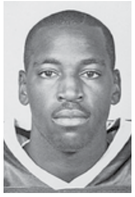
G | 5-10 | 200
DEARBORN, MICH.

Ed Bagdon garnered All-America status as a senior in 1949 as chosen by Look, United Press, The Sporting News, New York News, Central Press, Newspaper Enterprise Association and Tele-News. The recipient of the 1949 Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, he was part of a group known as "Duffy's Toughies" who knocked holes in opposing defenses from his guard position for Spartan backs. He developed a peculiar, but effective, shoulder brush-type block that took tacklers out of the play, but permitted him to keep on his feet and on the move. Named team captain in 1949, he started every game during his varsity career. Following his stint at MSU, he played professionally with the Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins.

CARL BANKS #54

OLB | 6-6 | 235
FLINT, MICH.

Carl Banks earned All-America honors as a senior in 1983 from the Associated Press, United Press and The Sporting News. Named the Spartans' MVP that season, he recorded 86 tackles, despite opponents rarely running to his side of the field, while closing out his career with 279 hits. Named as college football's linebacker of the year by the Columbus Touchdown Club, he was named first-team All-Big Ten three times and was MSU's first non-kicker to be named to the all-league team more than twice. He was taken in the first round (third player overall) by the New York Giants in the '84 NFL Draft. In 1996, he was selected as a member of the MSU Centennial Super Squad as picked in a poll conducted by the Lansing State Journal.



HARLON BARNETT #36

CB | 6-0 | 192
CINCINNATI, OHIO

Harlon Barnett captured first-team All-America recognition as picked by The Sporting News as a senior in 1989. He was a primary reason that the Green and White ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten and No. 11 nationally in both rushing defense (95.4 ypg.) and total defense (280.5 ypg.). He compiled 73 stops, high among Spartan DBs, along with three pass interceptions and three fumble recoveries. One of his pass thefts was a 35-yard return for a TD against No. 2-ranked Miami. He finished his career with 154 tackles, six interceptions and 13 pass break-ups. He was chosen in the fourth round by the Cleveland Browns in the 1990 draft.

DAVE BEHRMAN #51

DOWAGIAC, MICH.

Dave Behrman was an All-America pick as a junior in 1961 as selected by the Associated Press and Football Writers Association and his senior year by CBS-TV. Nicknamed "The Big Bear," the 6-foot-4, 265-pounder dominated opponents with his strength. He ranked No. 2 on the club in minutes in 1961 and logged 297 minutes as a senior when he concentrated on his center position. His versatility enabled him to play tackle, guard and center during his career. Drafted in the first round by both the Buffalo Bills and the Chicago Bears, he played for the Bills from 1963-67.

LeROY BOLDEN #39

HB | 5-7 | 163
FLINT, MICH.

LeRoy Bolden distinguished himself as an All-American his junior season in 1953 as picked by NBC-TV. Bolden paced the squad in rushing with 691 yards and scoring with 48 points. His running helped MSU to a Rose Bowl appearance in the school's first year of Big Ten play, especially in games against Minnesota and No. 16-ranked Ohio State where he registered three TDs vs. both foes while rushing for 145 and 128 yards, respectively. An all-around performer, he was a standout in the secondary and on special teams as a returner. At the conclusion of his career, he stood No. 2 on the school's all-time list in total touchdowns (26) and total points (156).

MARK BRAMMER #91

TE | 6-4 | 225
TRAVERSE CITY, MICH.

Mark Brammer landed All-America honors as a junior in 1978 as selected by the Football Writers Association, the only Big Ten gridder to earn that distinction that season. He grabbed 33 aerials for 360 yards and two TDs in '78, and was a key part of MSU's most productive offense ever—ranking No. 1 in the Big Ten in passing, scoring (No. 3 nationally at 37.4 ppg.) and total offense (No. 3 nationally at 481.3 ypg.). Started every game from his sophomore through senior years. Finished his career No. 3 on the school's all-time receptions list with 107. Picked by the Buffalo Bills in the third round of the 1980 NFL Draft.

ART BRANDSTATTER #31

ECORSE, MICH.

Art Brandstatter drew All-America acclaim as a senior in 1936 as selected by the All-American Board. Brandstatter was part of a Michigan State program that compiled a 20-4-2 record during his varsity career. He was selected to the 1961 Silver Anniversary All-America Team by Sports Illustrated. One of his great moments took place in 1935 when a 59-yard run in the fourth quarter against highly-ranked Temple set up the winning TD in a 12-7 decision.

ALLEN BRENNER #86

DB | 6-1 | 194
NILES, MICH.

Allen Brenner was named an All-American as a senior in 1968 by the American Football Coaches and the Newspaper Enterprise Association. His final year as a Spartan saw him record 63 tackles while coming up with a team-high eight touchdown saving hits, including three vs. Notre Dame (the last one of which was a fumble-jarring hit on Notre Dame's Terry Hanratty on MSU's 2-yard line on fourth-and-goal), which preserved a 21-17 upset win. A fine two-way player, Brenner hauled in 25 pass receptions, while playing a total of 449 minutes out of 600. Named team MVP in '68, he finished his career No. 2 on

ALL-AMERICANS

MSU's all-time list in receptions (73) and receiving yards (1,232). One of two sophomore starters on the Spartans' 1966 national championship team, he set a school record (which still stands) when he returned a punt 95 yards for a TD against Illinois in his first Big Ten game. He was drafted by the New York Giants in the seventh round of the 1969 NFL Draft. In 1996, he was named to the MSU Centennial Super Squad.

ED BUDDE #79

DETROIT, MICH.

Ed Budde was afforded All-America accolades as a senior in 1962 as picked by Time Magazine. Possessing both fine agility and speed, his blocking prowess helped MSU to a No. 2 national ranking in total rushing yardage. Following his senior year, he was the captain of the 1963 College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers. A first-round draft pick of both the Dallas Stars of the American Football League and the Philadelphia Eagles of the NFL, he enjoyed a 14-year career with the Kansas City Chiefs, earning All-Pro recognition seven times.

JAMES BURROUGHS #28

PAHOKEE, FLA.

James Burroughs captured All-America honors as a senior in 1981 as picked by The Sporting News. After sitting out the 1980 season due to academic reasons, he bounced back in strong fashion to post 46 tackles while registering a then-MSU single-season record of 13 pass break-ups. Burroughs was part of a Spartan defense that ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten in pass defense in 1981. He was a first-team All-Big Ten choice as picked by the league's coaches in 1981. He finished his collegiate career with 119 tackles and held the school record for pass break-ups with 28. Picked in the third round by Buffalo in the 1982 NFL Draft.

ROBERT CAREY #88

E | 6-5 | 215
CHARLEVOIX, MICH.

A great all-around athlete, Robert Carey was selected as an All-American as a senior in 1951 by the Associated Press, United Press, The Sporting News, Newspaper Enterprise Association, New York News and the All-American Board. MSU's leading receiver for three-straight years, he hauled in 20 aerials for 263 yards and three TDs in '51. Career-wise, he finished with 65 receptions for 1,074 yards and 14 TDs, with all three totals representing then school career records. In MSU's 24-20 come-from-behind win at Ohio State, Carey caught four passes for 50 yards, converted three PATs and made a 24-yard field goal. Against Colorado, in his final collegiate game, he caught five passes for 104 yards and two touchdowns in a 45-7 win. He is just one of 10 athletes in the history of MSU to have earned nine varsity letters. He played professionally with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears. In 1996, he was named to MSU's Centennial Super Squad (Pre-Big Ten Era).

LYNN CHANDNOIS #14

FLINT, MICH.

Lynn Chandnois was an All-America pick as a senior in 1949 as chosen by the International News Service, United Press, Central Press, Football News and Collier's. One of the great two-way performers of his day, Chandnois rushed for a school-record 885 yards on 129 carries. Chandnois also intercepted seven enemy pass attempts, returning those thefts a total of 183 yards (tops in the nation). He paced the club in scoring with 60 points and rushed for over 100 yards in four contests that season, including a career-high 163 yards against Arizona. In the 75-0 win over the Wildcats, he sprinted 90 yards for a TD, still the longest rushing play in Spartan history. He played 55 minutes or better in six games while going all 60 in two outings. He closed out his career in the No. 1 spot in a variety of career categories at MSU, including rushing with 2,103 yards, total touchdowns with 30 (currently No. 6) and in points with 180. His 20 career interceptions are still the all-time MSU standard as is his 410 pass interception return yards. A No. 1 pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers, he played with that franchise until 1957.

DEANDRA COBB #21

KR | 5-10 | 186
LAS VEGAS, NEV.

DeAndra Cobb, a first-team All-America selection by Collegefootballnews.com, led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 in the NCAA in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average in 2003. His 763 kickoff return yards rank fourth on Michigan State's single-season chart. Cobb returned five kickoffs for 167 yards (33.4 avg.) vs. Ohio State, including a 93-yard runback for a touchdown in the third quarter. It marked the first kickoff return for a TD allowed by the Buckeyes since 1984 when Michigan State's Larry Jackson returned a kick 93 yards. Cobb set a Spartan single-season record with his third runback for a score, breaking the mark (two TDs) previously shared by Herb Haygood (2001), Derrick Mason (1995) and Derek Hughes (1979). His three kickoff returns for TDs also tied the NCAA I-A single-season record shared by Texas A&M's Leeland McElroy (1993), New Mexico's Terance Mathis (1989), Tennessee's Willie Gault (1980), Southern Cal's Anthony Davis (1974), Purdue's Stan Brown (1970) and San Francisco's Forrest Hall (1946). The 5-foot-10, 186-pound Cobb also scored on kickoff returns of 100 yards vs. Minnesota and 94 yards vs. Rutgers. His 100-yard runback against Minnesota tied the Spartan record for longest return (Herb Haygood vs. Iowa, 2001; Derrick Mason vs. LSU, 1995, and Penn State, 1994; and Derek Hughes vs. Oregon, 1979). In two seasons (2003-04), Cobb returned 64 kickoffs for 1,632 yards and four TDs. His career 25.5-yard kickoff return average ranks sixth on the Big Ten's all-time list. He was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the sixth round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

DON COLEMAN #78

T | 5-10 | 185
FLINT, MICH.

Don Coleman was MSU's first unanimous All-American as a senior in 1951 as picked by the Associated Press, United Press, Collier's, Look, The Sporting News, New York News, Football News, Newspaper Enterprise Association, All-American Board, International News Service, Chicago Tribune Players and Central Press. Although just 185 pounds, Coleman used his quickness and technique to become a devastating blocker. The squad's MVP in '51, he finished runner-up to Jim Weatherall (Oklahoma) in the voting for the Outland Trophy. Known as the "60-minute man," Coleman stood out on defense and special teams. Tom Yewcic, the leader of the Spartan offense during their 9-0 season, gained All-America status as a junior in 1952 as selected by NBC-TV. He completed 41-of-95 passes for 941 yards, then a school seasonal record, and 10 TDs. In his first game as starting quarterback, he drew acclaim after completing seven-of-14 passes for 171 yards in sparking a come-from-behind 27-13 win over Michigan. He became just the second Spartan QB to reach the 200-yard plateau in passing when he passed for 202 yards against Texas A&M. The owner of 17 career TD passes and 1,480 passing yards. He signed a pro baseball contract before entering the pro football ranks with Toronto of the CFL before joining the Boston Patriots, 1961-66.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS/ RING OF FAME

Only four jersey numbers have been retired in the 113-year history of Michigan State football: No. 78 worn by All-America tackle Don Coleman, No. 90 worn by All-America roverback George Webster, No. 46 in honor of former MSU President John Hannah and No. 95 worn by All-America defensive end Charles "Bubba" Smith.

Spartan head coach Biggie Munn (1947-53) pulled Coleman's No. 78 out of circulation in 1952. Munn called Coleman, a consensus All-American in 1951, "the finest lineman ever to play for Michigan State." Coleman was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

Webster, a two-time All-American, had his No. 90 retired by head coach Duffy Daugherty in 1967. "George Webster is not only the finest football player I've ever seen but he symbolizes our great 1965 and '66 teams." Webster was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

Daugherty retired the No. 46 in 1969 as a tribute to Dr. Hannah, who stepped down after 46 years of service to the University including 28 years as its president (1941-69). Hannah championed Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten Conference in 1949. Former Spartan head coach and athletics director George Perles said, "John Hannah is the greatest legend in the history of Michigan State. He is the person who made MSU the great school it is today."

On Sept. 23, 2006, Smith became just the third player in Michigan State football history to have his jersey number (No. 95) retired. His jersey retirement was part of a special program to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the 1966 "Game of the Century" between the second-ranked Spartans and top-ranked Notre Dame that ended in a 10-10 tie.

Former Michigan State All-Americans and College Football Hall of Famers Brad Van Pelt and John Pingel will have their names added to Spartan Stadium's "Ring of Fame" prior to MSU's Sept. 18 home game against Notre Dame. Van Pelt and Pingel join Spartan legends Coleman, Webster, Hannah and Smith on the "Ring of Fame."

The fourth annual Orange Bowl game wasn't nearly as close as the final score might indicate as Auburn dominated play on both sides of the football in recording a shutout victory, 6-0, over Michigan State. It still ranks as the lowest-scoring game in Orange Bowl history. Auburn wasted two scoring opportunities in the first quarter. Jimmy Fenton's 25-yard run gave the Tigers a first-and-10 at the MSU 12, but the Spartan defense responded by stuffing three-straight running plays and Lyle Rockenbach broke up Fenton's fourth-down pass. Tom McShannock's interception and 29-yard return ended Auburn's second scoring threat. The game's only touchdown came in the second quarter and it was set up by George Kenmore's 28-yard pass to Ralph O'Gwynne to the MSU 2. Auburn fullback Pel Sitz netted only 1 yard on three carries before O'Gwynne scored on a 1-yard run around left end on fourth-and-goal. The Tigers had several chances in the second half to break the game open. Auburn turned the ball over on downs at the MSU 16 in the third quarter after Dutch Heath's 12-yard interception return to the MSU 24. Michigan State failed to record a first down until late in the third quarter when Ed Pearce broke a 29-yard run. Auburn drove inside the MSU 30 twice in the fourth quarter but failed to put points on the scoreboard. The Spartans' only other first down came on a 23-yard pass from John Pingel to Usif Haney midway through the fourth quarter. Auburn outgained Michigan State in total yards, 278-67. Fenton and Speck Kelly combined for 137 of the Tigers' 197 rushing yards, gaining 76 and 61 yards, respectively. Auburn held Pingel, MSU's All-America halfback, to 12 yards rushing on seven carries. A sellout crowd of nearly 19,000 attended the game at Miami's brand-new $360,000 Roddy Burdine Stadium.

Billy Wells ran for one touchdown and returned a punt for another score to lead No. 3 Michigan State to a 28-20 victory over No. 5 UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. UCLA jumped out to a 14-0 lead, capitalizing on two Spartan turnovers. Midway through the first quarter, Jim Salsbury recovered a fumble on the MSU 37 and six plays later, Paul Cameron hit Bill Stits with a 13-yard TD strike to give the Bruins a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Hardiman Cureton and Bob Long combined to sack Spartan QB Earl Morrall, who fumbled, and Cureton fell on it at the MSU 18. Seven plays later, Cameron scored on a 2-yard run off left tackle. The momentum changed midway through the second quarter when Ellis Duckett blocked Cameron's punt from the UCLA 25 and returned it 6 yards for a touchdown as the Spartans cut the deficit to 14-7 at halftime. The Spartans dominated play in the third quarter. Michigan State took the second-half kickoff and drove 78 yards in 14 plays with LeRoy Bolden scoring on a 1-yard dive to tie the game at 14. Wells capped a 10-play, 73-yard drive with a 2-yard TD run to give the Spartans their first lead at 21-14 late in the third quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, UCLA forced another fumble and Jack Ellena recovered it at the MSU 24. Two plays later, Cameron hit Rommie Loudd with a 28-yard TD toss but Cameron's conversion attempt sailed wide and the Bruins still trailed 21-20. Michigan State iced the game when Wells returned Cameron's punt 62 yards for a touchdown with 4:51 left in the fourth quarter. Wells led a well-balanced Spartan running attack, picking up 80 yards on 14 carries.

Dave Kaiser converted his first career field-goal attempt, a 41-yarder with :07 left, to give No. 2 Michigan State a 17-14 win over No. 4 UCLA in the 1956 Rose Bowl. Michigan State found itself in an early hole as Earl Morrall's pass on the first play from scrimmage was intercepted by Jim Decker and returned 4 yards to the MSU 16. Four plays later, Bob Davenport scored on a 2-yard run over left guard to give the Bruins a 7-0 lead with 11:48 left in the first quarter. Midway through the second quarter, Michigan State put together an 11-play, 80-yard drive to pull even at 7. Walt Kowalczyk's 30-yard run to the UCLA 17 set up Morrall's 13-yard touchdown toss to Clarence Peaks. On the second play of the fourth quarter, the Spartans took their first lead at 14-7 on Peaks' 67-yard TD pass to John Lewis, who caught the ball on the 50 and took it the distance. Five minutes later, UCLA's passing game produced a big play as Ronnie Knox hit Decker with a 47-yard bomb to the MSU 7. Three plays later, Doug Peters scored on a 1-yard plunge at center. Morrall directed an 11-play, 59-yard drive to the UCLA 24, but Gerald Planutis missed a 41-yard field-goal attempt. Five penalties were called in the closing minutes and field position shifted in Michigan State's favor when UCLA was whistled for three-straight fouls. The Spartans' game-winning drive started at the UCLA 19.

Gary Beban ran for two touchdowns and threw for 147 yards to lead No. 5 UCLA to a 14-12 upset win over No. 2 Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl. Michigan State committed four first-half turnovers, with the first coming late in the first quarter as Don Japinga fumbled away a punt at the Spartan 6 that UCLA's John Erquiaga recovered. On the opening play of the second quarter, Beban scored on a 1-yard sneak to give the Bruins a 7-0 lead. UCLA then surprised the Spartans with an on-sides kick that Bruin Dallas Grider recovered at the MSU 42. Beban hooked up with Kurt Altenburg for a 27-yard pass to the MSU 1. Beban capped off the five-play, 42-yard drive with another 1-yard sneak as UCLA scored twice in 3:07 to build a 14-0 lead. Michigan State rallied late in the fourth quarter, scoring twice in the final 6:13. Steve Juday's 42-yard strike to Gene Washington set up Bob Apisa's 38-yard TD run. Juday's two-point pass attempt failed and the Spartans trailed 14-6. The Spartan defense held on the next series and Bubba Smith partially blocked Larry Cox's punt to give MSU possession at the UCLA 49. Juday finished off the 14-play scoring drive with a 1-yard sneak with :31 left. On the two-point try, Apisa was stopped short of the goal line by Grider and Bob Stiles. UCLA stopped the Spartans on fourth-and-1 plays three times in the second half, including twice in the fourth quarter. Michigan State outgained UCLA in total yards, 314-212. The Spartans picked up 204 yards on the ground, with Clinton Jones rushing for 113 yards on 20 carries.

Wishbone quarterback Nate Sassaman rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries to lead Army, making its first-ever bowl appearance, to a 10-6 triumph over Michigan State in the 1984 Cherry Bowl. Michigan State had an early scoring chance after Phil Parker intercepted a rare Army pass and returned it 18 yards to the Cadet 43. Three plays netted only 8 yards and Ralf Mojsiejenko's 52-yard field-goal attempt missed wide left. The Spartans put together a nine-play, 58-yard drive but early in the second quarter on third-and-goal from the Army 5, Dave Yarema's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Kermit McKelvy. A Michigan State fumble near midfield led to Army's only touchdown. Cadet Clarence Jones capped off an eight-play, 46-yard drive with a 4-yard run off right tackle to give Army a 7-0 lead with 6:41 left in the first half. Early in the third quarter, Sassaman rushed eight times for 37 yards during a 14-play, 49-yard drive, but Craig Stopa's 32-yard field-goal try went wide right. Army converted a Spartan fumble into a field goal and a 10-0 lead in the fourth quarter as a 15-play, 59-yard drive produced a 38-yard field goal by Stopa with 8:40 remaining. A Cadet fumble gave Michigan State life as Tom Allan recovered the ball at the MSU 49. Three plays later, Yarema found Bob Wasczenski in the left corner of the end zone with a 36-yard TD strike. The two-point pass attempt failed and Michigan State trailed 10-6 with 4:19 left. Army gained 256 yards rushing on 71 attempts while controlling the clock for 34:05. The Cadets sacked Yarema six times and picked off three of his passes, including two by Doug Pavek.

Courtney Hawkins accounted for 216 all-purpose yards and caught a touchdown pass to lead No. 22 Michigan State to a 17-16 win over No. 21 Southern Cal in the 1990 Sun Bowl. MSU dodged a bullet early as Mike Iaquaniello intercepted a Todd Marinovich pass in the end zone on USC's first series. Late in the first quarter, the Trojans put together an eight-play, 60-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead on Marinovich's 7-yard pass to Gary Wellman. After a Spartan fumble, USC was again knocking on the door, but on a fourth-and-inches play from inside the MSU 1, Marinovich mishandled the snap from center and Alan Haller recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchback. MSU took advantage of the turnover and Hyland Hickson capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive with an 18-yard TD run with 2:22 left in the first half. USC opened the second half with an 18-play, 80-yard drive that lasted nine minutes but it had to settle for a 20-yard field goal from Quin Rodriguez. The Spartans responded by scoring 10-straight points. On a third-and-13 play from the MSU 26, Dan Enos hit Hawkins on a post pattern for a 41-yard gain and a first down at the USC 33. Four plays later, Hawkins scored on a 21-yard pass from Enos that gave MSU its first lead at 14-10. Freddie Wilson's interception at the USC 34 late in the third quarter led to a 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh as the Spartans built a 17-10 advantage. The Trojans got field goals of 54 and 43 yards from Rodriguez in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 17-16. MSU iced the game with two rushing first downs in the final three minutes. Hawkins caught six passes for 106 yards and a score to earn Sun Bowl MVP honors. Enos connected on 9-of-17 throws for 131 yards, including eight-straight completions during one stretch.

Midway through the second quarter, the Spartans missed out on a scoring chance when Bill Stoyanovich misfired on a 31-yard field-goal attempt. Louisville put together a 14-play, 74-yard drive in the third quarter, but failed to put points on the scoreboard as Akers missed a 23-yard field-goal try. Brohm directed a seven-play, 59-yard drive for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, hitting Reggie Ferguson on a crossing pattern for a 25-yard TD pass. A 24-yard interception return by Darius Watson gave Louisville the ball back at the MSU 33 but seven plays later, the Spartan defense stopped Anthony Shelman short of the goal line on fourth-and-1. The Cardinals got two points back on the next play as Joe Johnson and Tyrus McCloud tackled Spartan tailback Craig Thomas in his own end zone for a safety. Matthew Stafford completed 20-of-31 throws for 250 yards and three touchdowns to lead No. 16 Georgia to a 24-12 victory over No. 19 Michigan State in the 2009 Capital One Bowl. Michigan State took the opening kickoff and drove the ball to the Georgia 39-yard line, but Dwayne Holmes was stopped short of a first down on a fake punt. The Bulldogs responded with an eight-play, 48-yard drive of their own and took a 3-0 lead on Blair Walsh's 32-yard field goal with 9:26 left in the first quarter. Georgia's second possession resulted in a turnover, as Kendell Davis-Clark returned his first career interception 24 yards to set up Brett Swenson's 20-yard field goal that tied the score at 3 with 4:50 to play in the opening quarter. The Spartans forced two turnovers in the first quarter but managed to produce only a field goal. Late in the first half, another Georgia miscue – a mishandled snap by punter Brian Mimbs – gave the Spartans great field position at the UGA 40. However, Michigan State had to settle for a 32-yard field goal from Swenson and a 6-3 halftime lead after Brian Hoyer was sacked by Jarius Wynn for a 5-yard loss on a third-and-6 play from the Bulldog 10. Georgia's offense came to life in the second half, as Stafford connected on 14-of-17 passes for 179 yards and three scores. Stafford capped off a 10-play, 96-yard drive with a 35-yard TD strike to Michael Moore as the Bulldogs took the lead for good at 10-6 with 3:31 remaining in the third quarter. Prince Miller's 38-yard punt return plus a 15-yard personal-foul penalty set up Stafford's second scoring pass, a 21-yarder to Aron White with 0:09 to play in the third quarter to build a 17-6 advantage. Early in the fourth quarter, Michigan State pulled to within 17-12 as Javon Ringer finished off a 10-play, 54-yard drive with a 1-yard plunge for his school-record 22nd TD run of the season. Georgia answered with an 11-play, 67-yard drive and iced the game on Stafford's 21-yard TD toss to Knowshon Moreno, who made the grab over Greg Jones at the front corner of the end zone. The Bulldog defense held Michigan State to a season-low 236 total yards, including just 31 yards on 34 rushing attempts.

LOU ANNA K. SIMON, PH.D.
PRESIDENT
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Lou Anna K. Simon is the 20th president of Michigan State University, leading the university in advancing the common global good. Her commitment to applying knowledge to benefit society is reflected in her key initiatives and detailed in Embracing the World Grant Ideal: Affirming the Morrill Act for a Twenty-first-century Global Society, a monograph available online at worldgrantideal.msu.edu.

Simon has a distinguished history with Michigan State University, from earning her doctorate in administration and higher education from MSU in 1974 to her appointment as president by the MSU Board of Trustees in January 2005.

Simon's dedication to advancing Michigan's economic future has been a hallmark of her presidency. She is a member of the Michigan Strategic Economic Investment and Commercialization Board and serves on the board of directors for Business Leaders for Michigan and for Prima Civitas, mid-Michigan's economic development foundation. She also has led MSU's participation in the University Research Corridor, a partnership with the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, to improve Michigan's economy through innovation, technology transfer, and education.

Under Simon's leadership, in 2009, MSU opened its Detroit Center, a 22,000-square-foot facility to foster and to enhance 21st-century learning and partnerships that will serve as catalysts for future prosperity. To address the state's physician shortage, MSU's Colleges of Human Medicine and Osteopathic Medicine have expanded to Grand Rapids, Detroit, and Macomb County, which has doubled MSU's medical student enrollment. For her support of medical advancement, the Michigan Health Information Technology Commission awarded Simon its 2010 Leadership Award.

Simon also has helped extend MSU's reach in the nation and around the world. She is a member of the Council on Competitiveness, a nonpartisan, nongovernmental organization working to ensure U.S. prosperity; the board of directors for the American Council on Education; and the executive committee of the Partnership to Cut Hunger and Poverty in Africa.

Under Simon's tenure, MSU received more than $400 million in externally sponsored research in 2008–09. In the past two years, MSU was chosen by the U.S. Department of Energy as the site for the approximately $600-million Facility for Rare Isotope Beams and selected by IBM to host a global application development center. The university opened the Energy and Automotive Research Laboratories and was named one of the nation's top five campuses for sustainability by the National Wildlife Federation. MSU leads U.S. public universities in study abroad participation, ranks among the nation's top 10 public universities for international student enrollment, and is the sixth largest all-time producer of Peace Corps volunteers.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR MARK HOLLIS

"We gather and engage our community to teach, support and celebrate our student-athletes in their quest for excellence."

This is the vision Mark Hollis has for the Michigan State Athletics Department. A Michigan State graduate and veteran Spartan athletics administrator, Hollis assumed the role of MSU's 18th athletics director on Jan. 1, 2008, succeeding Ron Mason. Hollis was named athletics director-designate on Sept. 12, 2007, and teamed with Mason in the transition throughout the fall of 2007.

Hollis has more than 20 years of athletics administration experience, either at the school or conference level. His well-rounded background has led to his knowledge of all areas within an athletics department, including marketing, financial administration, television negotiations, fund-raising, game operations, facility management, personnel policy, corporate interaction, sports management and public relations.

Hollis, a 1985 MSU graduate, returned to his alma mater in 1995. Since then, he has been a critical component of the athletic department executive management staff, helping guide the department through short- and long-range plans.

On the playing field, Michigan State proved again in 2009-10 to be one of the most consistent athletic departments in the country, finishing 39th in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, marking the 11th time in the past 12 years the department has placed in the top 40. Highlights included the men's basketball team advancing to the Final Four for the sixth time in the last 12 years and winning its second straight Big Ten regular-season title, field hockey capturing both the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships, and the football team appearing in its third-straight bowl game. Overall, 11 sports participated in their respective team NCAA Championships, while individuals competed in four more NCAA Championships.

One of Hollis' major goals upon becoming athletics director was accomplished this past spring when he unveiled the new brand and identity program for the athletics department. All of Michigan State's uniforms now incorporate consistent use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals along with standardization for logos. Throughout the project, equal attention was devoted to maintaining an appreciation for the traditions of the past, while positioning the athletics program for the future. The brand and identity program for Michigan State Athletics was a result of nearly a two-year collaborative effort between the athletics department and Nike that included input from university and athletic administration, coaches and student-athletes.

During Hollis' tenure, Michigan State student-athletes have excelled not only in competition, but in the classroom as well. In 2009-10, Spartan student-athletes posted 3.0 or higher semester GPAs in record numbers, as a school-record 365 student-athletes achieved that mark in the spring semester, breaking the previous record of 356 which was set just the previous semester in the fall. Additionally, 224 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors throughout the academic year. In 2008-09, the department posted the highest cumulative GPA in program history at 3.0052 for the second consecutive year; it also marked the first time the department has ever had back-to-back years with a cumulative GPA of over a 3.0, as the 3.0038 GPA in 2007-08 set the previous record. The department also set another record in 2008-09 as 13 teams achieved a 3.0 or higher term GPA during the spring semester.

In Hollis' first full season as athletics director in 2008-09, Michigan State enjoyed one of its most successful years of the decade with a 27th-place finish in the Directors' Cup, the best showing for the department since 2003 and the third highest in the department's history. Ten teams earned bids to their respective NCAA Championships, led by the men's basketball team, which reached the national title game against North Carolina while also winning the Big Ten regular-season championship. In addition, the football team won nine games for the first time since 1999 and played on New Year's Day in the 2009 Capital One Bowl, the men's soccer team won the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships, and the crew team won its second-straight Big Ten title. Individually, wrestler Franklin Gomez claimed the 133-pound national title.

During the spring semester of Hollis' first year as athletics director in 2008, six winter and spring sports garnered team berths to the NCAA Championships, while individuals saw action in four more NCAA Championships. The men's golf and women's rowing teams claimed Big Ten Championships and the men's basketball program reached the Sweet 16 for the seventh time in 11 years. This success propelled Michigan State to 29th in the Directors' Cup standings.

Prior to his official appointment as athletics director, Hollis played a lead role in two significant head coaching searches during the 2006-07 year. He spearheaded the effort to hire Mark Dantonio as football coach, which has resulted in three consecutive bowl appearances for the program, including a bid to the 2009 Capital One Bowl. He also provided major assistance in the hiring of women's basketball coach Suzy Merchant in the spring of 2007, who led the Spartans to the Sweet 16 in 2009. Hollis' first hire as athletics director arrived on July 2, 2008, when he tabbed Jake Boss Jr. to direct the Spartan baseball program.

Spartan athletic facilities have been upgraded at an unprecedented rate the past decade, and will only continue to improve under Hollis. In August 2008, the Spartans moved into one of the nation's finest football facilities, as a $15 million expansion and renovation project for the Duffy Daugherty Football Building was completed. MSU alumni Robert and Julie Skandalaris of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., donated $5 million as the lead gift for the facility expansion and upgrade. The Skandalaris Football Center includes new team, staff and position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a hall of history. In addition, an expanded weight room was finished in September 2008 that increased the facility in size from 9,000 to 16,500-square feet. Also in 2008, the men's and women's soccer programs opened DeMartin Stadium, a state-of-the-art 2,500-seat facility that enables MSU to host conference and national tournaments. In spring 2009, the baseball program played its inaugural season in McLane Baseball Stadium following a $4 million donation to the 2,500-seat ballpark by Houston Astros owner Drayton McLane Jr., and a new softball stadium is scheduled to be completed in December 2010.

As a senior associate athletics director, Hollis oversaw all external relations for the MSU athletics department. Included in this group are marketing and promotions, community relations, special-event fund-raising, sports information, ticket operations, spirit groups, broadcast services and corporate sponsorships. He also had sports management supervision of the men's basketball program, while also supervising the cheerleading, dance team and band programs.

Hollis has been recognized by his peers as one of the best in the business. In 2002, he was named recipient of the National Marketer of the Year Award as selected by the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). Under his direction, Michigan State has enjoyed increases in ticket revenues, including nine years of sold-out football seasons and nearly 200 consecutive sellouts in men's basketball. He was successful in negotiating a $2 million donation to the university for the construction of the Berkowitz Basketball Complex, providing both the men's and women's basketball programs with one the nation's top office complexes.

One of Hollis' greatest strengths is his ability to "dream big" in an effort to create greater exposure, not just for the Michigan State Athletics Department but for Michigan State University as a whole. He conceptualized "The BasketBowl," establishing a then-world record attendance of 78,129 for a basketball game between Michigan State and Kentucky at Detroit's Ford Field. The concept of placing the court in the middle of the field in a domed stadium was used by the NCAA at the 2009 Final Four in Ford Field. Michigan State University earned net revenues of $1 million from the event. Similarly, he executed the "Cold War" ice hockey game between Michigan State and Michigan, drawing a then-world record crowd of 74,554 to an outdoor hockey game in Spartan Stadium.

On Oct. 13, 2005, Michigan State University and WJR - 760 AM announced a five-year agreement to carry Spartan football and men's basketball games, along with coaches' radio shows. The successful partnership led to the announcement on Jan. 19, 2010, of a 10-year extension through 2020. Hollis played a leading role in finding MSU athletics a home on the 50,000-watt Detroit radio station, known as the "Great Voice of the Great Lakes." The agreement has benefited more than just athletics as WJR regularly promotes the academic accomplishments of the university in addition to broadcasting sporting events.

His creativity and negotiation skills have helped Michigan State enhance its postseason bowl appearances in a very competitive environment. During his time at MSU, the Spartans have appeared in the Alamo Bowl twice, along with the Capital One Bowl, Champs Sports Bowl, Citrus Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Sun Bowl, Independence Bowl and the Silicon Valley Football Classic. He is also a key component during men's basketball postseason play, having been a part of 13 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament and six Final Fours, handling many operational logistics.

In this era of college athletics, Hollis also excels in his relations with corporate partners. During his time guiding the office, the athletic department's annual sponsorship revenue billing increased from $350,000 to nearly $3 million. He developed an innovative sponsorship relationship with Nike for footwear, apparel and licensing resulting in cash payments to the university and product for all athletic programs.

Hollis also understands the importance of television broadcasts and other multi-media outlets for promoting the athletic department and the University. Through a combination of innovative strategies and personal relationships with ESPN, ABC and CBS television, he has increased Michigan State's television exposure by 60 percent for football and men's basketball. His background in the field allows Hollis to better understand how to use the emerging Big Ten Network to provide national television exposure for each one of MSU's varsity sports, and how to combine athletics with the academic mission of the university. Understanding the importance of the Internet in today's world, he negotiated an Internet agreement that has MSU ranked consistently in the national top 20 with more than 1.8 million page views monthly.

Prior to returning to Michigan State, Hollis spent two years at the University of Pittsburgh as assistant and associate athletic director. While at Pitt, he directed the operations for external affairs, game management and facilities, while also managing the day-to-day operations and budget of the football and men's basketball programs.

Before his stint at Pitt, Hollis worked for the Western Athletic Conference. He joined the WAC as an administrative assistant immediately after college. Two years later, he was appointed assistant to the commissioner and soon thereafter was promoted to assistant commissioner. As assistant commissioner, Hollis was responsible for all aspects of the budget, financial management, corporate sponsorships, promotions, personnel policies, conference tournaments, basketball officiating and general administrative duties. He coordinated relationships with postseason bowl games and television entities, resulting in significant increases in bowl appearances by conference teams.

Hollis earned his bachelor of arts degree in communication from Michigan State in 1985, where he served as a basketball team manager under Jud Heathcote. In 1992, he earned his MBA in business administration from the University of Colorado.

He and his wife Nancy, have a daughter, Katy, and two sons, T.R. and Michael.

SPARTAN STADIUM

Spartan Stadium is in its 87th season as home to Michigan State football. Since its opening in 1923, Michigan State has won nearly 69 percent of its games played in Spartan Stadium. In 2005, the natural grass playing surface in Spartan Stadium earned Field of the Year honors from the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA).

Spartan Stadium represents a tribute to Michigan State's football past and a vote of confidence in its future. A $64 million expansion project completed prior to the start of the 2005 football season features the addition of nearly 3,000 seats, including 24 suites and a 193-seat press box, bringing the current stadium capacity to 75,005. "The Spartan" statue has been relocated to the atrium of the new structure. The 200,000-square-foot addition also houses the MSU Alumni Association, University Development and other units. The MSU Board of Trustees approved the major addition and expansion project of Spartan Stadium in September 2003.

Here's a quick look at some Spartan Stadium construction milestones:

- Dec. 22, 2003 – Groundbreaking begins at construction site.
- May 7, 2004 – Erection of steel framework begins.
- July 30, 2004 – Topping-out ceremony held as the uppermost steel beam is lifted into place.
- Nov. 13, 2004 – Press box demolition begins just 13 hours after Michigan State concluded its 2004 home schedule against Wisconsin.
- Aug. 1, 2005 – The 20-month construction project was completed.

Barton Malow/Clark served as the construction manager for the Spartan Stadium expansion project, with HNTB providing architectural services.

Prior to the 2002 season, ESPN.com's Mel Kiper Jr. ranked Spartan Stadium No. 8 on his list of the nation's most scenic venues.

Natural grass returned to Spartan Stadium in 2002 after a 33-year absence, with the installation of a modular field. The new playing surface, planted in May of 2001 at MSU's Hancock Turfgrass Research Center, is comprised of a blend of nine varieties of Kentucky bluegrass. The original switch from natural grass to artificial turf came in time for the 1969 season.

Since 1957, capacity crowds have attended 152 games in Spartan Stadium, including the single-game record 80,401 fans who witnessed MSU's 20-19 loss to top-ranked Notre Dame on Sept. 22, 1990. The Spartans have ranked among the NCAA's top 25 in attendance each of the last 54 seasons, including 18th in 2009, averaging 74,741 fans per game.

Season-ticket sales have topped the 60,000 mark five times in Spartan football history, with an all-time record 61,479 season tickets purchased in 2000.

A series of projects paralleling the Spartans' rise to national football prominence enlarged the steel-and-concrete facility from its original 14,000 seats in 1923 to its present size in 1957.

The first came in 1935, the year in which the stadium was officially named Macklin Field, boosting the capacity to 26,000. The 1948 enlargement raised the total to 51,000.

After 9,000 new seats upped the capacity to 60,000 in 1956, the upper decks were added to the east and west stands in 1957, bringing the capacity to 76,000. It also became Spartan Stadium that year. Renovations during the summer of 1994 improved sightlines and comfort for fans, while reducing the capacity to 72,027.

On Oct. 6, 2001, Spartan Stadium added another chapter to its storied history as a world-record crowd of 74,554 attended the MSU-Michigan outdoor hockey game.

Prior to the 1998 season, a Mitsubishi Diamond Vision was installed in the south end zone and a new scoreboard and black and white message board were added to the north end zone. The CRT video display measures 21 feet x 27 feet and it is operated from a digital production control room in the Breslin Center. The video display board shows live game action, replays and special features. In addition, a concert-quality 50,000-watt sound system was installed.

In 1998, Spartan Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary plus it reached another milestone that season when it played host to its 400th game, a 29-5 MSU victory over Northwestern on Oct. 31.

With its 49-14 victory over No. 4 Wisconsin in the 2004 home finale, Michigan State recorded its 300th win in Spartan Stadium. Michigan State has compiled a 320-142-13 record (.687) since taking up residency in Spartan Stadium (formerly Macklin Field) in 1923. The Spartans have gone undefeated at home 16 times since the stadium opened, including a perfect 6-0 mark in 1999. It marked MSU's first undefeated home record since 1966 (5-0-1) and its first unbeaten and untied home slate since 1965 (5-0-0).

In addition, Michigan State has suffered only one home loss during a season 28 times. Only nine times in the history of the stadium have the Spartans experienced a losing record at home.

Michigan State's longest home winning streak is 19 games from Oct. 14, 1950, through Nov. 21, 1953.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

THE BCS IS:
The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game showcase of college football. It is designed to ensure that the two top-rated teams in the country meet in the national championship game, and to create exciting and competitive matchups among eight other highly regarded teams in four other bowl games.

It has been undeniably successful in achieving those goals. Thanks to the BCS, the top two teams have played each other 12 times in 12 years by BCS measurements and 9 times in the last 12 according to the AP poll – including the last six years in a row. Additionally, it has provided more access to the major bowls for all 11 conferences, more television exposure, and more postseason revenue than ever before.

The BCS allows for preserving the significance of the regular season, which is the most meaningful in sports. It also maintains the bowl system to the benefit of dozens of universities each year.

The bowl games participating are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game, which is played each year at one of the bowl sites.

The BCS is managed by the commissioners of the 11 NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision ("FBS") (formerly Division I-A) conferences, the director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame, and representatives of the bowl organizations. The conferences are Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt, Pacific-10, Southeastern and Western Athletic.

The conference commissioners and the Notre Dame athletics director make decisions regarding all BCS issues, in consultation with an athletics directors advisory group and subject to the approval of a 12-person presidential oversight committee whose members represent all 120 FBS programs.

The five BCS games are part of the overall bowl structure. All bowl games provide meaningful season-ending opportunities to teams.

As one conference commissioner said, "The celebration that occurs among the student-athletes, coaching staff and fans at the end of each bowl games is an indication of the importance of all bowl games."

The BCS places great premium on the regular season of college football.

"Football weekends are an important ingredient in the overall college experience – going well beyond simply what occurs in the athletics department," said BCS Executive Director Bill Hancock. "A significant amount of the revenue that supports all athletic programs is generated by regular-season football. And so it is important that the regular season remains strong and vibrant."

The top two teams were matched in bowl games only eight times in the 56 years before the BCS and its predecessors (the Bowl Coalition and Bowl Alliance) were created. In those days, conferences were contractually obligated to certain games and there was no flexibility to attempt to match the top teams.

The 11 BCS conferences have a contract with ESPN to televise the games through the 2013-14 season.

REVENUE
Each conference whose team qualifies automatically for the BCS receives approximately $18 million in net revenue. A second team qualifying brings an additional $4.5 million to its conference. Notre Dame receives approximately $1.3 million. Army and Navy also receive $100,000 each, and the NCAA's Football Championship Subdivision conferences share approximately $2 million.

ECONOMIC IMPACT
The total economic impact in the host cities from the five BCS games in January 2009, was estimated at more than $1.2 billion.

ACCESS
Each conference had an opportunity to earn annual automatic qualification through a four-year evaluation covering the regular seasons of 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007. The Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences met the threshold and earned automatic qualification through the 2013-14 season. A seventh conference could qualify for the 2012-13 and 2013-14 bowl season based on an evaluation of the 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 regular seasons.

Additionally, institutions can qualify in any given season by meeting certain thresholds.

A WORD ABOUT A PLAYOFF

The NCAA membership has not voted for the creation of a playoff. Given that context, the conferences created the BCS in order to match the top two teams in a bowl game while maintaining the importance of the regular season and preserving the bowl system.
